

Confronting the Rich-Poor Gap: When a Rising Tide Doesn't Lift All Boats

Featured Speaker: Heather Bullock, Ph.D.
UCSC Professor of Psychology

Saturday, February 9, 2019
10 a.m. to noon

Resource Center for Nonviolence
612 Ocean Street
Santa Cruz, CA 95060

Free and open to the public.

A discussion of deepening economic inequality and its consequences throughout society:

- How beliefs about poverty, wealth, and socioeconomic mobility legitimize economic inequality
- The consequences for individuals and society as a whole
- Creating a more equitable society that benefits everyone

Heather Bullock, Ph.D., professor of psychology and director of the Blum Center on Poverty, Social Enterprise and Participatory Governance at the University of California, Santa Cruz, investigates the dimensions of poverty and economics from a social psychology perspective.

*Doors open at 10 am with light refreshments being served.
Program begins at 10:30 am.*
