Education & Advocacy

The League of Women Voters (LWV) is a grassroots organization that welcomes women and men from all backgrounds. We research issues, arrive at consensus, and implement action plans.

Our activities include:

- Empowering voters to exercise their right to vote
- Organizing voter registration drives
- Sponsoring candidate & issue forums
- Managing www.VOTE411.org
- Hosting Lunch and Learn and Brews and Views educational events
- Opposing gerrymandering
- Advocating for a clean, safe environment
- Promoting government accountability
- Organizing fun opportunities to become involved in our democracy

Non-Partisan

We do not support or oppose any candidates for office or political parties. We are a voice for all, working to connect people directly with government.

Diversity

LWV is fully committed to diversity, equity and inclusion, in principal and practice.

Who joins the League - and why?

Betty B.- “I joined the League to work with others on making the world a better place for all in terms of voting, environmental issues, and protecting the values which have made the United States a strong democracy.”

Zoe B.- “The belief in each other and in the League’s causes in expanding each other’s knowledge and collaborative efforts on important issues.”

Doris L.- “The level of knowledge and commitment within the group and the culture of inclusion at every level is inspiring to me.”

Joan O.- “I admired the accomplishments of the League and the positive impact on women.”

Barb B.- “I joined the League because I was interested in redistricting and the Ann Arbor Area League has one of the foremost experts in redistricting in the state, perhaps even the entire country.”

Sunny M.- “Once I got started and saw what women can do, I was inspired and couldn’t stop.”

Sylvia P.- “I joined because there is a need to do more than just vote to promote real political participation in the U.S.”
