Book Club Readings and Discussions

Local Leagues are encouraged to select one or more of these books for in-depth discussions of how understanding of the experiences and concepts developed by the authors can be used to infuse LWV services in the communities we serve, and increase diversity, equity, and inclusion in our local Leagues. Many of these books have Reader's Guides for a fulfilling and challenging discussion or you can use the attached So You Want to Talk About Race Book Discussion Guide for increased DEI in your League. Also see the attached Discussion Guide for White Fragility. The NY Times 1619 Project can serve as an introductory resource for all these texts.
