

CIVIL RIGHTS OF ALL THOSE CONVICTED OF A FELONY IN VIRGINIA

The League of Women Voters of Virginia believes that civil rights of all those convicted of a felony, regardless of the nature of their crime, should be restored automatically upon their release from incarceration and that the process should be easy to understand, accessible, transparent and fair with information about the process made available to all. (2009, 2025)

The League of Women Voters of Virginia believes that:

- The civil rights of those convicted of a felony in Virginia should be restored automatically upon their release from incarceration. (2025)
- The procedure should be identical for all convicted of a felony, regardless of the nature of their crime. (2025)
- The process should be easy to understand, accessible, transparent and fair.
- Information about the process should be available to all those convicted of a felony, the judicial and correctional systems, and the general public. (2009, 2025)
