Information for Voters – June 23, 2020 Primary (The Governor has moved the primary that was to be held on June 9 to June 23.)

Because of the current Covid crisis, voters should strongly consider voting absentee by mail. Excuse based voting will still be in effect for this election, but excuse 2A can be used for illness avoidance.

To vote in the June 23, 2020 county primary you must be registered by June 1, 2020.

Applications for an absentee ballot for mail in must be received by the registrar by 5 pm on June 16, 2020.

Voters will need to designate if they want a Democratic or Republican ballot. Democrats will vote in a county board primary between Libby Garvey and Chanda Choun. Republicans will choose for a candidate for U.S. Senate among Daniel Gade, Thomas Speciale and Alissa Baldwin.
