Case Studies for Increased Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Speaker: Charmaine Clowney, Esq.,
DEI Coordinator for LWVSC and
President of the Clowney Consulting Group

Sabrina Creel, Tribal Board Council Member with the Edisto Natchez-Kusso Tribe of South Carolina, we invite you to watch a recording of the event, available here: LWV Connects: Meet the Edisto Natchez-Kusso Tribe.
