

LWVHW Update - Welcome to 2026!

Welcome to 2026, Leaguers and friends! We are rested and ready to meet the new year! It's so important to know where we have come from and what we are fighting for. The nation observed the 5-year anniversary of the January 6 insurrection earlier this week and LWV CEO Celina Stewart shared some meaningful reflections in her online piece, "Five Years After the Insurrection: A Constitutional Crisis, Then v. Now". Take a moment to read it and reflect on where we are and what lies ahead.

As she says, "Our mission and our history demand that the League of Women Voters do absolutely everything within our power to make 2026 the year we save our democracy, not the year we condemn it." This will require concerted efforts at the national, state, and local levels. We can do it – together. Will you join us?

Join us this Saturday, January 10, at 11 am in front of Winthrop School to recommit to our First Amendment right to freedom of speech and assembly.
