

LWVHA Nonpartisan Policy

- Members shall not undertake any activity which may constitute a public statement of partisan position that could be attributed to the League.
- Once the LWV (local, state, or national League of Women Voters) takes a position on an issue, members may not identify themselves as LWV members in publicly expressing an opinion that is in opposition to a LWV position.
- Members may serve on any public board, commission, committee, or coalition; however, that member does not represent the LWV unless officially designated as a LWV representative by the LWV board.
- Members who lead studies should not have conflicts of interest or partisan biases which would affect the objective conduct of information gathering and analysis.
- Only petitions approved by the board of directors may be circulated at LWV meetings.
- The LWV member roster may not be made available for non-League use without board consent.
