

The Leelanau VOTER Fall 2019

From the President.....

The LWVLC strongly encourages all members to vote YES and to help spread the word to other Leelanau voters.

For the past 4 and ½ years the Early Childhood Needs and Services Committee of the LWV Leelanau County has worked hard to educate our members and the public on the importance of the first 5 years of a child's life. We have learned about the impact of Adverse Childhood Experience (ACEs) and also how the 5 Protective Factors can minimize and overcome these challenges. These 5 Protective Factors of social connections, parental resilience, social-emotional competence of children, knowledge of child development and parenting, concrete supports in times of need promote healthy lives. They also form the foundation of the Early Childhood Development Services millage that passage on November 5 will sustainably fund.

The polls are open 7am through 8pm on November 5th. Any registered voter can secure an absentee ballot through 4pm on November 4th. Any eligible citizen of the county can register to vote at any time. On Election Day you can register in person with your Township Clerk, not at a precinct. Voters who register on Election Day get a ballot and can vote that day.

In Memory and Honor of Jo Walker

Jo passed away on September 8, 2019. This was very sudden and was a shock to many in her Leelanau Community. Jo was known for her contagious smile and never complain attitude. Once she saw a job that needed to be done, she was on it. Jo was on the first Board of the League of Women Voters. She held the position of treasurer. She was also our very talented web master, always quick to add information, even last minute requests. She managed our local VOTE411 publication. Her strong organizational skills, determination and unending patience lead to a publication where all could learn about a candidate's qualifications. Just prior to her death she was excited and looking forward to updating our webpage. Her passing is keenly felt by the League. She also was deeply involved in other community efforts: Board member of Fishtown Preservation Society; Leelanau Christian Neighbors where she was instrumental in the founding of Blessings in a Backpack; secretary/treasurer of Birchwood Shores Preservation Association; and worked closely with Leland Public Schools Bridge Connection. Our sympathies go out to her husband Jim.

Jo's "go at it spirit" lives on as we announce OUR NEW WEBSITE. Tricia Denton and Susan Price worked hard this past month on the conversion from one web platform to another. There is still some work to do, some tabs to add but the link is now live. Check out my.lwv.org/michigan/leelanau-county

COMMITTEES IN ACTION

VOTER SERVICE

Voter Service members have been busy this fall. We have registered 58 voters at NMC with LWVGT. We so appreciate Deputy Clerk Lyn Drzewiecki who accompanies us at our county schools. Tricia Denton and Lyn registered 4 at Leelanau School; Barb Krause, Jacquie Johnson, and Lyn registered 9 at Leland; BJ Christensen and Patty Barons handed out forms at Glen Lake and St. Mary's, respectively.

We are excited about collaborating with the LWV ERA committee and showing "Iron Jawed Angels" for all seniors and maybe juniors this spring, and then registering students. Those plans are just beginning.

More to come on voter training in conjunction with the 2020 Census

FARM LABOR IMMIGRATION TASK FORCE

Barb Krause, Sam Getsinger and Christi Bardenhagen met with Doug and Ann McInnis of the Energy Committee to discuss collaborating on a forum on agriculture next April. Starting the forum at 11:30 and adding lunch are a possibility. It was then determined we need two forums since each committee has so much material to cover, FLITF will do ours on April 1 and the Energy Committee to follow later in April or May The next FLITF meeting is November 4, 2019 at 11:00 at the at the New Bohemian Café at 110 Waukazoo in Northport. Ginger Bardenhagen has been invited to give an update on housing in the area.

EARLY CHILDHOOD NEEDS AND SERVICES

Judy Kuntz, a volunteer videographer for the TC Community tv station, will be videoing future League Forums. The link to our Oct. 2 Early Childhood Forum video is <http://www.tacm.tv/watchcommunitytv.asp?sdbfid=12305>. This particular Link is available until Nov. 13; we are working on how to make these links available for longer periods of time.

LWVLC member Patricia Soutas-Little and Maggie Sprattmoran were guests on the Ron Jolly Show to discuss the early childhood development millage. The Northwest Michigan Infant Mental Health Association is planning a "Baby Gala" on Thursday, Nov. 7 at Kirkbride Hall in the Commons (see attached flyer on page 7). Four committee members plan to attend and support this good cause. If you are interested in attending please call Rosa at 231-632-1391. Call Sue Miller at 616-485-0361 regarding arranging a carpool. Meanwhile, keep talking with friends and neighbors about the early childhood millage. Thanks for helping to get this passed!

The next ECNS meeting 2:00 PM, Friday, Nov 15 at the Munnecke Room.

Vote YES
For Our Kids
on Nov. 5th!

ENERGY AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Our committee is making plans for an April 2020 or May 2020 forum with the Farm Worker Immigration Task Force program on the alternate month. Next meeting will be Wed. Nov. 13 at 10 AM at the Govt Building in conference room #1. All subsequent meetings will be as they have historically been on the first Wed. of each month.

“Could the solution to the changing climate be under our feet?”

Our committee is currently planning our forum around the idea of the huge potential for farmlands, intact healthy forests, and home residential areas (mini-farms) to become carbon sinks, sequestering carbon OUT of the atmosphere while creating fertile, nutrient-rich, soils. There are many scientists who now insist that this practice would be HUGE, in conjunction with decreasing carbon emissions from fossil fuels and deforestation, in beginning to restore a healthy, habitable Earth for all living things.

Our first action is to interview some of the local growers and stake-holders to learn about current practices, issues related to current farming and any reforestation practices now occurring. We are concurrently doing research on regenerative farming, or/and carbon farming, or/and using nature to sequester carbon, or/and organic growers, or/and permaculture, and possibly reforestation, and more. Then we ought to be in a position to plan our forum having accumulated a list of potential presenters. We will then decide if we want one speaker or perhaps three and perhaps some displays along the side by local stake holders who now are engaged in this type of agriculture.

The Forum potentially has one speaker presenting or three speakers sharing their expertise

- 1. Intro about why we need to get carbon out of the atmosphere.
- 2. Fastest and least expensive way to do this would be thru regenerative agriculture (i.e., returning carbon to the soils) and how it works.
- 3. Presentation about local folks already doing this and the economic benefits to farmers, residential growers, businesses, wildlife, healthy, in this changing agricultural environment.

12TH ANNUAL FRESHWATER SUMMIT OCTOBER 25, 2019

Session #1: Climate Change Update with Peter Sinclair

Summary by Ann and Doug McInnis

“A 40% Increase in precipitation in our area is not your imagination”. Due to the increasing climate temperatures, which are increasingly warming the water and land, there is more evaporation of water into the atmosphere with the potential to create havoc, especially in the Eastern and Midwestern and Great Lakes regions of the US. Add that to the increasing huge temperature differential between the rapidly warming Arctic and the Temperate regions and it is easy to see the results as the jet streams steer the weather systems into huge unpredictable, and slowing down, often stalling, loops. The results are unpredictable and often unseasonable weather conditions of either too hot or too cold, too rainy (think floods) or too droughty, extreme wind and storm events, and more. This is already creating a mismatch between pollinators and historical blooming seasons, birds and their insect food, animal migration patterns, increasing algal blooms (some of which are toxic) in the Great lakes, and much more. Some economic assumptions for regional agriculture are that growers may need to change their crops and farming strategies, flooding will need to be factored into infrastructure and building plans, and strategies to cut fossil fuels and sequester carbon will need to be implemented ASAP.

EQUAL RIGHTS ADVOCACY

The ERA committee has met the last two months and is planning to meet again November 11th at 3:30pm at the Leland Library - Munnecke Room. We have numerous events in the planning stages here are a few.

1. The TC Women's March will be held again in 2020 on January 18th with plans much as in the past. We will march. It is not too soon to make sure you have your old posters or plenty of time to make new ones.
2. March is Women's History month and our forum will be "We will meet again" with story telling as outlined in the past. The LWVLC bi-weekly member email will have a reminder. This could be a fun winter project for members to reflect on that special person to honor in March.
3. The committee is working on the possibility of showing the movie "Ironed Jawed Angels" to local high school seniors in the Spring of 2020 to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of women gaining the right to vote. Date times, and cost to be announced....
4. In 2020 we invite any and all LWVLC members and friends to join us in the 4th of July parade in Glen Arbor dressed as suffragists to commemorate the 100 years of women's right to vote.
5. The LWVLC Board will ask the Board of Commissioner for permission to plant a native tree at the Leelanau Govt Center to commemorate the 100 years of women's right to vote. This would be a gift from LWVLC.
6. There is interest in offering a re-enactment of the Seneca Falls Women's Conference from the 1800's. Patty O'Donnell has the script and has done this in the past. Date, time and place to be announced.

Anne Rogers made several Suffragist costumes for our LWVLC marchers in the 4th of July Parade. Left, Jan Frazee presented Ann with the parade's best costume award.

LWVMI President's Message

The efforts local Leagues in Michigan put forth to educate the public on the merits of Ballot Proposal 2 and 3 last year helped bring the support by voters to a successful win. Now it is our duty to educate the public on just exactly what they won.

LWVMI is facilitating our local Leagues to educate the public on the 2020 Census, its impact on the Citizens' Redistricting Commission (CRC) including its successful implementation and the details of the new voting rights through a series of town hall meetings throughout the state. In addition, Betsy Cushman, VP Voter Services is working with partners to engage clerks to assist in the new voting laws and educating voters to be able to take advantage of the benefits. It seems that our work has only just begun.

When the Supreme Court declined to rein in partisan gerrymandering, the National League pledged to launch a nationwide redistricting reform initiative. All 50 states and the District of Columbia have signed on to the campaign titled People Powered Fair Maps™ While each state is at a different juncture in the plan, the goal is to promote a transparent and accountable redistricting process and end partisan practices. LWVUS "believes the responsibility for fair redistricting should be vested in independent special commissions with membership that reflects the diversity of the unit of government." The first 100 years was based on the national movement to ratify the 19th amendment; the next 100 years is to have fair maps.

We have many things to be proud of in Michigan: the CRC, a brand-new League in Marquette, strong membership, a vibrant voter service and advocacy program, a development plan to sustain the work of our missions and a skilled board to carry that through - to name a few!
