

Contacts: Carol Eisner Communications@LWVLosAngeles.org or Marilu Guevara, Executive Director Ed@lwwlosangeles.org 213-368-1616 www.lwwlosangeles.org

The League of Women Voters of Los Angeles Presents Public Forum on Transit Oriented Development

Los Angeles, CA -- July 6, 2018 The League of Women Voters of Los Angeles presents a free public forum on transportation and the intersection of transit and housing solutions on Saturday, July 14, 2018, 2:00 P.M., Musicians Institute Concert Hall, 1655 N. McCadden Place, Hollywood, CA 90028. The forum is intended to raise the level of civic conversation about shifts in zoning and how people live and get around the region of Los Angeles. Registration: <https://bit.ly/2KKaYZR> (Free).

To access public transportation, take Metro's Red Line to Hollywood/Highland station or Red Line bus #802 followed by a four-minute walk. Public parking available in nearby lots.

The panel discussion will be moderated by Alissa Walker, Urbanism Editor, "Curbed LA" who authors the column, Word on the Street and will include the following panellists:

- Christopher Hawthorne, Chief Design Officer, City of Los Angeles and former architecture critic, Los Angeles Times
- Dick Platkin, Columnist, CityWatchLA and Board of Directors, Beverly Wilshire Homeowners Association
- Mott Smith, Co-Founder, Civic Enterprises Development
- Tunua Thrash-Mtuk, Executive Director, LA Local Initiatives Support Corporation
- Denny Zane, Executive Director, Move LA

The League of Women Voters, a non-partisan political organization, encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

###