Los Angeles, CA – The League of Women Voters of Los Angeles will host a luncheon with Los Angeles County Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky on June 14, 2014 at 12:00 p.m. at the UTLA Plaza, 3303 Wilshire Blvd., 2nd floor, Los Angeles, CA 90010. The public is encouraged to join the League for lunch and to hear Supervisor Yaroslavsky discuss his views on LA issues as he steps down after 20 years of service. Those in attendance will have an opportunity to ask Supervisor Yaroslavsky questions.

Tickets for the event, which includes lunch, are available at $37.50. To RSVP please visit the League of Women Voters of Los Angeles website at www.LWVlosangeles.org or call the League office at 213-368-1616.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan, non-profit organization whose mission is to broaden access of civic knowledge and to enhance the enlightened participation in our city's governance and the democratic process.

As a public service, the League of Women Voters has created the Voter Guide (LWV-VG) to provide voters with accessible information for the upcoming June 3, 2014 primary election. The publication is a quick reference guide in an impartial format that aims to increase informed voter turnout. The LWV-VG is available at League candidate forums, community presentations, local libraries, schools and some City Clerk offices. The LWV-VG is available electronically on the LWVLA website in both English and Spanish.

For more information on this event, the League of Women Voters Voter Guide, or other election questions visit our calendar page or call our hotline (213)-368-1616. The LWV encourages informed and active participation in government and increased understanding of major public policy issues through education.
