

Past Events Marking the 19th Amendment Centennial

Virtual events at Albany Institute on Art and History and co-sponsored by LWV of Albany County. The Voices of HerStory is a series of public programs exploring diverse perspectives on the women's suffrage movement and its continuing legacy today. See the full list of programs here:

An 8-minute video looking at the suffragist movement and the women who achieved a turning point in history, the right to vote. Created by Fairfax County, VA, government. Watch the video here.

‘Finish the Fight’: A Special Digital Theater Performance Celebrates 100 Years of Women’s Right to Vote. The New York Times marks the centennial of the suffrage movement with an original play from some of the brightest young voices working today. View the performance here.

The LWV of the Hamptons, Shelter Island & North Fork co-sponsored with Southampton’s Rogers Memorial Library “Ladies of Liberty: 100 Years Strong.” - an amazing musical revue created by performer Valerie di Lorenzo. You can view Valerie di Lorenzo's performance on Facebook by clicking this link:

"Suffrage at 100: A Visual History," NY Times Special Article How did American women win the right to vote? These images help bring their decades-long movement into focus. View the article here:

National Women’s History Alliance has a selection of news and resources to help you enjoy the historic anniversary of women winning the right to vote. There is also a list of the exciting groups we know of celebrating the suffrage centennial in each state. To see all the events download the PDF here:

The National Parks Conservation Association's park talk, Suffrage & Seneca Falls, the 19th Amendment and the Seneca Falls Convention. Watch the archived program here:

Nineteen on Nineteen - 19 NYS Senate women. The event traced women's political voices through the voices of New York State's own women Senators. Watch the archived event here:
