The Woman's Hour:
The Great Fight to Win the Vote
by Elaine Weiss

Nashville, August 1920. Thirty-five states have approved the Nineteenth Amendment granting women the right to vote; one last state – Tennessee – is needed for women's voting rights to be the law of the land. The suffragists face vicious opposition from many opponents. In one hot summer, they all converge for a confrontation, replete with booze and blackmail, betrayal and courage.

Q & A via Zoom with author Elaine Weiss and join in a singalong of “Let Mother Vote” from the hit Broadway show “SUFFS”!
