

Call to LWVCT Annual Convention 2019 to Celebrate our Memorable Past, Exciting Present and Brilliant Future

Join Us for League Business, Special Speakers, Networking and Workshops Designed to Help Your League

Saturday, June 15th

Courtyard by Marriott

780 Bridgeport Avenue, Shelton, CT 06484

8:30 a.m. registration and coffee; 9:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. Convention

Dr. Kelly Marino (left), CCSU Visiting Assistant Professor of History, will speak on Connecticut women's suffrage movement

Mr. Val Ramos (right), Everyday Democracy Director of Strategic Alliances and Equity Officer, will share how we can be proactive on making the League more diverse, equitable and inclusive!

We will have a brief business meeting in which we will pass a budget, elect new Board members, design our advocacy program for next year, and hear from Kay Maxwell, LWVCT 100th Anniversary Committee Chairperson, about the wonderful upcoming plans. This will be followed by our special speakers and workshops on successful debates; getting grants and local League advocacy.

League delegate counts are proportional to the number of League members. Any League or MAL Unit may send as many observers as it would like. Leagues that have not filled their delegate count may authorize such observers to act as their delegates.

Convention, including plenary session, workshops, morning coffee and lunch:

$45 until and including June 7th, or $50 afterwards.

Questions? Please phone 203-288-7996. Checks should be made out to LWVCT, Inc.
and mailed to :LWVCT, 1890 Dixwell Avenue, suite 203, Hamden, CT 06514-3183

Yes! I'd like to attend:

☐ as a delegate and have received approval from the board of LWV _____

to serve as their delegate:

☐ as a non-voting participant/observer

Name _____ League _____

Amount Enclosed $ _____

☐ No one from my League can come, but we'll permit a member in good standing of another League to represent us.