THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY crafts South Carolina state laws and consists of two bodies: the South Carolina House of Representatives and the South Carolina Senate. There are 46 members of the S.C. Senate, who are elected every four years, concurrent with the United States presidential election. The legislature convenes at the State House in Columbia from the second Tuesday in January until the second Thursday in May. The session may be extended if the House fails to pass a budget by March 31, or the BEA submits a forecast reduction, or by a vote of both bodies.		The General Assembly SC Senate
