

Chico Unified School District

Trustee

The Board operates under the authority of the California Constitution, State Legislature, California Education Code and the California State Board of Education. The trustees are responsible for oversight, policy and adopting the annual Chico Unified School District Local Control and Accountability Plan which serves as the foundation for district-wide goals and priorities. The Board of Education welcomes the opportunity to connect with parent, teachers and staff.

Number of elected members: 5 members

Elected at-large, however, the Chico Unified School District has recently been exploring a move to “trustee area” elections.

Geographic area governed or administered:
