

Misinformation Harms American Democracy

...and here's what we can do about it.

The League of Women Voters of Norwalk and Norwalk Public Library invite you to Meet & Greet all candidates, elected officials, and Norwalk board & commission members.

Introductions by Sherelle Harris, Library Director, and Laura Smits, LWV Connecticut President.

Presentation by Attorney Mekela Panditharatne and Dr. Maya Kornberg of the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU Law School

Mekela Panditharatne J.D. serves as counsel for the Brennan Center's Democracy Program, where her work focuses on election reform, election security, governance, voting, truth and information. Mekela recently served as lead counsel on a federal Civil Rights Act matter and her writing has been published in the New York Times, the Washington Post, CNN Opinion and NBC News.

Dr. Maya Kornberg is a researcher for the Brennan Center's Elections and Government Program, where she leads work related to information and disinformation in politics, Congress, and money in politics. Her forthcoming book, Inside Congressional Committees: Function and Dysfunction in Lawmaking, will be published by Columbia University Press this February.

Sunday, February 5, 2:30-4:00 PM -- Norwalk Public Library

1 Belden Avenue, Norwalk, CT 06850

All are welcome.
