

Judy Anderson
Community Service Award

The Judy Anderson Community Service Award shall be presented to an individual or organization in Union County in recognition of their noteworthy contribution to our community. LWVLA wishes to honor their service to the area and their commitment to making life better for their neighbors.

Criteria:

- * Service in the community – Years of service will be considered only for those performed in Union County.
- * The candidate must have been a resident of Union County for at least five years.
- * The candidate shall have given a significant amount of time to one or more organizations/projects.
- * Service given in support of a political candidate or issue shall not be considered.
- * The length of involvement will be considered.

Involvement in religious activities, with the exception of those designed to benefit the entire community, shall not be considered. (E.g. a fund-raiser for the church or synagogue would not be considered; being a leader of a church team for the Crop Walk would)

- * Service given as part of a paid job will not be considered.
- * A candidate may receive the award only once in a five-year period.
- * The candidate must be at least 21 years old.
- * The candidate may not hold public office during the year of consideration.
- * Donation of money will not be a consideration; the award is for time and effort rather than financial support.
- * The candidate may be an individual or an entire organization, provided that organization is not in the business that benefits from its own service.

* While it is preferable that the nominee be a living person, the LWVLA Board will consider giving this award posthumously. Two requirements must be met in order for this award to be given posthumously: a. the death of the nominee should be no more than 5 years past; b. the nominee should have either a close friend or family member available to accept the award.

Nominations:

A nomination may be made by any LWVLA member with a vote of the Board determining the recipient.
