

The League of Women Voters of Georgia Welcomes Executive Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Atlanta, GA February 9, 2021.

LWVGA is excited to welcome our new Executive Director - Linda Rigby-Bridges. The Leagues' need to strategically invest in its organizational infrastructure has never been more vital as dynamic growth, and interest in our work defending democracy has revealed. To this end Linda's hire could not be more timely.

Linda brings a tremendous amount of community service & leadership experience to the League. She has served at the Local and State levels of the League of Women Voters in many capacities. Linda's passion, drive and commitment to the core principles of the League is inspirational and she is dedicated to representing Georgia in order to make it a more inclusive and stronger state. "I am humbled and honored to accept the position of Executive Director. I will continue to move the needle and apply my passion to drive the core principles of the League of Women Voters of Georgia," says Rigby-Bridges.

She has been a successful fundraiser for several nonprofit and grassroots organizations and possesses a high level of comfort working with c-level corporations, nonprofit organizations and community leaders to support successful outcomes. Linda has a strong work ethic and is recognized for consistently going above and beyond to provide exceptional performance. "I am excited to welcome Linda as our new Executive Director. She has proven her commitment to LWVGA's mission and values, and I look forward to seeing our organization thrive under her leadership," says President Susannah Scott.

The League of Women Voters of Georgia is a nonpartisan grassroots organization that envisions a democracy where every person has the desire, the right, the knowledge and the confidence to participate. Our mission is to empower voters and defend democracy. The League celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2020 and with over 600 members throughout Georgia, is one of the State's most trusted organizations for voting rights advocacy and election information.
