

LWVGH ANNUAL MEETING May 11, 2023

LWVGH's Annual Meeting will be held Thursday, May 11, 2023, at 6:00pm, in Hubbard Hall at St. John's Episcopal Church in West Hartford. Stephanie Thomas, the Secretary of the State of CT, will be our guest speaker and will discuss "Early Voting in Connecticut". A brief Annual Business Meeting will follow the speaker.

You will receive your invitation soon. For more information contact: karen_licht@yahoo.com.

CT General Assembly

Here is an excellent article from the CT Mirror that informs us of the full particulars and timelines of the CGA sessions. It is helpful for everyone to read through, and especially for those involved in advocacy.

LWVUS SURVEY

LWVUS is collecting all perspectives from the entire League of Women Voters membership through April 22. Your voice will inform key strategic decisions for staying powerful for the next 100 years. Please fill out this short 10-minute survey about your unique experiences in the League. All answers are anonymous.

Would you like to be on a LWVGH committee? Limited time or more possible. For info, contact: caroleannmul@gmail.com.

Early Voting Action!

Implementing early voting will require funding for communication, training, and support. The LWVGH has submitted this testimony in support of fully funding a budget for education and implementation for early voting. Please consider using the language of our letter to send your support to your elected officials and the Appropriations Committee by Thursday, April 13:
