2. Good Government Standards, 1981: The Missoula League of Women Voters believes that proposed changes in governments for Missoula must be measured against our seven standards for good government. good government standards position missoula lwv.pdf

3. Land Use, Planning, and Growth in Missoula Area, 2020: The Missoula League of Women Voters believes the public has a right to participate and influence growth decisions. Generally the League believes that all growth (commercial, industrial, and residential) should be efficiently managed. The League defines: planning as a process governments use to develop ordinances and rules that guide growth; growth is new development; land use is how land is utilized as residential, commercial, industrial, recreational, agricultural, and as open space. 4. Accountability of Local Boards and Commissions, 1985-86: The Missoula League of Women Voters believes that boards supported in whole or in any part with public funds must be accountable to the public and must be subject to written policies covering bylaws or rules of procedure, agendas, minutes, and procedures for appointments and reappointments. The League also believes it is the responsibility of boards, or appointing bodies, in the case of appointed boards, to educate board members to the full meaning and content of the Montana Open Meetings Laws and the Montana Code of Ethics and to assure that they are followed. 5. Basic Principles about Public Education, 1987: The Missoula League of Women Voters believes a primary purpose of public education in the United States is to provide informed, active, creative citizens with critical-thinking skills necessary for the success of our representative form of government. Public education must instruct students in the common heritage of all American groups and promote the tolerance and diversity that preserves our democratic institutions and safeguards our individual liberties. 8. Affordable Homes, 2020: The League of Women Voters supports current and future efforts to increase the availability of safe, decent, and affordable homes for moderate and low-income households. Housing is a human right. It promotes self-sufficiency for individuals and families, promotes stability in neighborhoods, and is an effective tool in reducing and preventing poverty.
