

Saturday, September 12, 2020, at 9:30 a.m.
“The Woman’s Hour has Struck: Wisconsin’s Role in the Women’s Suffrage Movement”

Speaker: Jenny Kalvaitis, formerly of the Wisconsin Historical Society

We will be able to take a march through suffrage history exploring the stories of leaders, tactics, losses, and victories as women worked for the right to vote. We will also see how Wisconsin fits within the larger story of enfranchisement and analyze the conflict and complications that suffragists faced as they sought the right to vote.

Register <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/6562984215849121552>

Saturday, September 19 at 9:30 a.m.
“Exchanging the Baton of Political Leadership from Him to Her”

Speaker: Thelma A. Sias, Retired Executive

An inspiring message will be delivered from one of Milwaukee’s most powerful women who embraces leadership and commitment to serve her community. Thelma will motivate us to get actively involved in making sure everyone’s right to vote is ensured, as well as actively encouraging all people to make sure their voice is heard. Following her presentation, a panel of local organization leaders from the League of Women Voters, NAACP, and others will share their plans for voter education and ask for your involvement in this work. Register:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/8230339723301849104>

Both Webinars are free and open to the public. Make reservations for one or both on LWV-Beloit’s Facebook page-- or by going to the event direct link above.

These programs are possible thanks to generous grants from the Women’s Fund, Stateline Community Foundation, and the League of Women Voters. Organizations on the local Centennial planning committee include - League of Women Voters: LWV of Beloit, LWV of Janesville, Beloit Historical Society, American Association of University Women- Janesville Branch.