Newspapers (Newspapers in Education Program available from Peninsula Daily News and Sequim Gazette)

Peninsula Daily News - Our Newspaper in Education (NIE) program helps students become well-informed citizens by using the Peninsula Daily News as a classroom text. We distribute more than 18,000 newspapers during the school year in nine school districts. The NIE program is entirely paid for by sponsorships and by vacation donations from our subscribers, so there is no cost to participating teachers. The demand for newspapers in the classroom grows each year. To find out how you or your business can become an NIE sponsor, call our NIE coordinator at (360) 417-7690.

Sequim Gazette - Please contact us at 360-683-3311 or email us at circulation@sequimgazette.com.
