Frequently Asked Questions
About Students Inside Albany

How do you choose the students that will attend SIA? Since students are representative of local Leagues and their community, the local League sets the criteria for sending students. Students may be asked to write about the conference for their sponsoring local League's bulletin and may also be asked to be special guests at one of their meetings.

Is there any cost to the student? No, LWVNYSEF, along with our supporter pays for the entire conference, which includes lodging, meals and snacks. The local League that sponsors the student, is responsible for arranging and paying for transportation to and from the conference.

How much time will I miss from school? The conference starts on a Sunday afternoon and ends on Wednesday afternoon. So, the student will miss two, possibly three days of school.

What is Students Inside Albany?

Students Inside Albany (SIA) is a conference sponsored by the League of Women Voters of New York State Education Foundation, Inc. The program is designed to increase students' awareness of their responsibility in representative government and provide the tools necessary for meeting that responsibility.

This interactive conference will bring together high school students from across the state to learn about New York State government and the process by which citizens can participate in the policy making arena.

What are the learning objectives of Students Inside Albany?

- To increase student understanding of public policy in New York State.
- To enhance student understanding of the roles of the various forces seeking to impact New York State legislation and policy development, enactment and change.
- To promote an increased understanding of the New York State legislative process through legislative shadowing experience.

What SIA graduates had to say about the conference:

*"Learned invaluable lessons about NYS government and being a more active citizen."
