the Burbank Public Library and the League of Women Voters Present:*

SUFFRAGE: WOMEN'S LONG BATTLE FOR THE VOTE

AN ILLUSTRATED TALK BY DISTINGUISHED HISTORIAN ELLEN CAROL DUBOIS

The ratification of the 19th Amendment in 1920 was the culminating act in a 75-year-long struggle to win the vote for women. Ellen DuBois will present an illustrated talk about the epic battle, and explore how a woman's right to vote changed America and how it continues to have a growing impact on our nation's political life.

Ellen Carol DuBois is Distinguished Research Professor at UCLA, and the author of numerous celebrated books on women's history in the U.S. Books will be available for purchase and signing.
