About the League of Women Voters

The League of Women Voters of Clallam County has been actively engaged in making our democracy work since 1968. The League strives through education and advocacy to:

- Act as a force to create positive, lasting change
- Ensure that all citizens have a voice
- Educate citizens on public policy issues that affect their lives
- Foster public debate based on substance rather than partisanship
- Monitor governmental bodies and commissions
- Influence public policies consistent with League positions and principles

Made up of people of all ages and backgrounds, the League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan, grassroots organization. Its activities include registering voters, sponsoring debates, holding public forums, studying public policy, taking positions based on its fundamental principles and publishing educational resources like this directory. The League is firmly nonpartisan and neither supports nor opposes candidates for office. At the same time, it is political and advocates on select policy issues after careful consideration by its membership. Find out more about the League's ongoing work at www.lwvcla.org.

Membership

League members engage at the local, state and national level in hands-on work to encourage informed and active participation in government. Visit our website at www.lwvcla.org or email info@lwvcla.org for more information about joining the League.

Registering to Vote in Washington State

To qualify to vote in Washington State, you must be a citizen of the United States, a legal resident of the state, at least 18 years old by Election Day, and not disqualified due to a court order. Most ex-felons are eligible to vote unless in prison or on community custody. If unsure of your status, contact the DOC at 800-430-9674.

Registration Deadlines

Online or mail-in registration must be done at least 29 days before the election, or, for new Washington registrations only, may be done in person up to eight days before the election. In person registration must be done at the Clallam County Auditor's office. Specific dates can be found online at <http://wei.sos.wa.gov/county/clallam/>

What If I Move?

THE US POST OFFICE DOES NOT FORWARD BALLOTS. You must change your address through www.MyVote.wa.gov or at the County Auditors Office when you move.

You may update your registration up to 29 days before the election in which you wish to vote. If this update is not made by the deadline, you may still vote according to your previous address if you contact the County Auditor to obtain a ballot.

If you move to a new county, update your address at www.MyVote.wa.gov or fill out a new voter registration form. If you move to a new state, you must re-register with the elections office in the new state in order to vote.

Residence Address Does Not Need to Be Your Mailing Address

PO Box numbers may not be used for your residence address. However, they may be used for your mailing address. If you have a nontraditional address, such as a motor home or transitional housing, your voting residence is the physical location at the time you register to vote. You may list a different mailing address.

If you are a Snowbird, update your seasonal mailing address at the County Auditor's office. Provide the first and last days you'll receive mail at this address and the County Auditor's office will send your ballot to your seasonal address between the dates indicated.

Washington residents who are away at college or living overseas can update their mailing address online at www.MyVote.wa.gov and receive a ballot anywhere in the world. The ballot will reflect ballot measures and candidates for your Washington residence address.

Where Can I Register to Vote

You can register to vote online with through the Secretary of State's website at www.MyVote.wa.gov with a Washington State Driver License or ID. Mail-in registration forms can be requested or printed (also in different languages) at www.sos.wa.gov/elections. You can register when you get your new state driver license or ID at the Department of Licensing. Registration can be done in person at:

Clallam County Auditor

Clallam County Courthouse
223 E 4th St, Suite 1, Port Angeles, WA
Monday-Friday 8:00-4:30
360-417-2217 • <http://wei.sos.wa.gov/county/clallam/>

Voting in Clallam County

All elections in Washington State are by mail-in ballot. If you are registered to vote in Washington State, you are automatically mailed a ballot 20 days before Election Day. There are three ways to return your ballot.

- Mail it with a first-class stamp making sure it is postmarked no later than Election Day.
- Drop it off at a curbside Ballot Drop Box by 8 PM on Election Day. Curbside Ballot Drop Boxes require no postage. These are located at:
 - Port Angeles: 223 E 4th St, Courthouse circular drive; also directly across from the disabled parking
 - Sequim: Sequim Village Shopping Center, by JC Penny parking lot
 - Forks: 502 E Division St, District Court II lobby
- Drop it off in person at the Clallam County Auditor's office by 8:00 PM on Election Day.

Make Sure Your Vote is Counted

Carefully follow all instructions on your ballot. Use only black ink pen to vote. Make sure to sign your ballot. The signature on every ballot envelope is verified against the voter's registration record. If your signature has changed, please update your record at the County Auditor's office. Respond immediately if you are contacted by the County Auditor's office. You may have forgotten to sign the return envelope or your signature may not match your voter registration record. If you do not respond, your vote will not count.

Accessible Voting

Clallam County's Accessible Voting Unit (AVU) is available within the Auditor's office starting 20 days before Election Day until 8 p.m. on Election Day. If you are unable to cast a ballot due to a disability, you may designate a person of your choice, or two election officers, to enter the voting booth and record the votes as you direct.

Primaries in Washington State

Washington was the first state in the country to establish a Top 2 Primary election system in place of a party nominating system. A Top 2 Primary narrows the number of candidates to two. In each race, you may vote for any candidate listed on the ballot. The two candidates who receive the most votes in the Primary advance to the General Election, regardless of their party preference. Washington voters do not declare party affiliation as part of voter registration. However, for the Presidential Primary and the election of PCO's (precinct committee officers), a declaration of affiliation is required and you must vote for a candidate from your declared party. The declaration is made on the ballot itself.

Contacting Your Representatives

Sharing your thoughts with the women and men who represent you at the local, state and national level is easy and vital to the functioning of our democracy. When an issue or legislation arises that you care about, contact your representatives by email, phone or regular mail to ensure that your voice is heard.

Tips for Communicating with Elected Officials

- Email is now the preferred method of communication, but phone calls, postcards and letters are still effective.
- Be courteous and to the point.
- Keep letters to one page.
- Address letters to elected officials to "The Honorable" plus name, or "Position" plus name, as in "The Honorable Jane Doe" or "Councilmember Jane Doe."
- Describe specifically and in your own words how an issue or legislation will affect you and others you know.
- Include the legislative bill number or its popular name if you are commenting on specific legislation.
- Be sure to give your name, current address and phone number.
- Ask for a response.
- Give positive feedback. Take the time to also let representatives know when they have done something of which you particularly approve.
- Remember, your elected officials represent you!
