

THE FREEMAN STAGE

CELEBRATE A HISTORIC MILESTONE THROUGH THE ARTS

Votes for Women 100 Years Later and Beyond

Tuesday, March 3, 1 p.m., Delaware Technical Community College, Georgetown

Thursday, March 19, 6 p.m., Delaware Historical Society, Wilmington
Hear speakers discuss the importance of the 19th Amendment's ratification and its impact and aftermath over the past 100 years as well as how the 19th Amendment will continue to make change for women and what we can anticipate in the next 100 years for women and the USA. Generously sponsored by Delaware Tech.

19th Amendment Celebration March

Sunday, March 8, 3 p.m., The Circle in Georgetown

Join us for a celebratory march in Georgetown to honor all women to celebrate International Women's Day and the Centennial of the 19th Amendment ratification. Join us in the fun and wear the colors of the suffragettes: white, purple and yellow. Feel free to bring a sign and stickers as well as sashes will be available.

"Iron Jawed Angels" Movie and Discussion

Wednesday, March 18, 6 p.m., Delaware Technical Community College, Georgetown

Wednesday, Oct. 14, 6 p.m., Delaware Historical Society, Wilmington
This historical drama film focuses on the American women's suffrage movement during the 1910s and follows women's suffrage leaders Alice Paul and Lucy Burns as they use peaceful and effective nonviolent strategies, tactics, and dialogues to revolutionize the American feminist movement to grant women the right to vote. Post screening discussion led by Joanne Guilfoil, PhD. Generously sponsored by Delaware Tech.

All are welcome. For more information or to register for any of these free events, visit freemanstage.org.

These events are made possible, in part, by a grant from the Delaware Humanities which provides educational outreach, special projects, and funding opportunities to bring Delawareans together.
