MDW SC Update: Update and Corrections!

First, the Governor has signed S. 108, but it is still in question whether changes will be in effect for the primaries.

Second, Sine Die apparently scrambled my brain. There are several corrections to be made in my summary of the election bill, beginning with correcting the date to May 13. In addition:

First, the limitation on submitting absentee ballot applications is now 5 applications, in addition to oneself, not 10.

Second, the requirement to audit a minimum of 5% of ballots was removed. This is merciful, because the 5% figure would have been difficult for some counties as well as poor practice when conducted Risk Limiting Audits.
