PROGRAM PLANNING KIT
2021-2023
WHAT IS PROGRAM PLANNING?

In League, “Program” consists of the body of issues we choose for study, education and action at local, state and national levels. Program can include both education and advocacy work.

The Program planning process occurs every two years in advance of our state Convention. It is part of what makes the League a grassroots organization; each League member has the opportunity to influence the selection of issues on which the local, state, and national League will focus time, talent and money. It takes the enthusiasm and interest of our members to keep our program vital. You would never skip voting in an election; you shouldn't skip the League's equivalent. Program planning is your voice!

The process starts now with your local League Program planning, the meeting(s) at which you and fellow members propose the areas on which you’d like to focus your local energy, the energy of other local Leagues in California, and the resources of the state League (staff, board, consultants, and other volunteers) over the next two years.

Your goal is to propose up to three “Issues for Emphasis” to the state League. These reflect your League’s priorities and may be based on current League work or on new topics you believe the state League should focus on. One or more of your choices could be a new study, an update of an existing LWVC position or concurrence with an existing or proposed position. Your League’s recommended Issues for Emphasis are due no later than March 1, 2021. The LWVC board will review all the responses from Leagues across the state, make their recommendations, and then send local Leagues their Recommended Program for 2021-2023 for review.

The program planning process culminates in the delegates’ adoption of the statewide program at our 2021 convention. Every member is encouraged to attend; find out more

Making Democracy Work: An Equity Lens

The League of Women Voters of California applies an “equity lens” by analyzing what we do from the perspective of how it impacts underrepresented individuals and communities. Program planning offers an excellent opportunity to develop representative League leadership and add rich, diverse perspectives to your work. While non-members can’t participate in the consensus portion of Program planning, they can be part of the meeting.

In that spirit, we encourage you to front end diversity, equity and inclusion in Program planning by proactively reaching out to both League members and partners in your community who are young, Black, Latino, Indigenous, Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, Middle Eastern, have disabilities, are in the LGBTQI+ community, or otherwise underrepresented.

STATE LEAGUE DISCUSSION GROUP AND WEBINAR

The state League hosts an LWVC Program planning Google discussion group. It’s a place to encourage others to join your cause, try out an idea, discuss various proposals, find help to refine a rough idea. Bring your ideas—we’ll have a great League discussion! All League members are invited to join. Please invite your members using various modalities including announcing it in your newsletter, through social media, on your website, and in meetings.

You can also join us for a webinar on Tuesday, December 15, 2020, at 6:30 p.m. Register online to learn more and have your questions about the process answered. Afterward, we’ll post a recording of the webinar on the Members’ Only under Program planning.

USING PROGRAM PLANNING TO DIVERSIFY & GENERATE FRESH IDEAS

The LWVUS offers tips for your program planning meeting(s), to inspire you to make them fun and productive and use them to bring in different perspectives from your communities, attract new members, get attention, and develop leadership in your League. They were written pre-COVID, but many elements are still useful. Check them out and use what is applicable to your League.

As we noted earlier, while non-members can't participate in the consensus portion of program planning, they can be part of the meeting. To broaden your ideas and

The League is a grassroots organization that sets its agenda through the “Program planning” process. As members and friends of the League, this is your chance to help choose our priorities in education and advocacy and determine what we want for the future of California and our League.

Join us at xxx on xxx, when we’ll be discussing League policy and positions at the state level. Where should the League focus its energy over the next two years?

What are the issues of concern to us here in ______? Where is there a need for legislative activity and other types of advocacy, both in Sacramento and in our city or county?

Advocacy is a key League activity year-round. For example, we supported or opposed 8 of the 12 statewide ballot measures in November, and in addition, many bills we supported—from racial justice to voting rights—were signed into law.

What will we do to participate in the LWVUS Campaign to Make Democracy Work? Should we focus on community education? Where does local redistricting fit into our priorities? What critical issues do you see emerging that perpetuate the widening wealth gap between people with great wealth and those who have lower incomes? This is your opportunity to make your voice heard. Join us!

Ideas for social media.

- Join the League as we decide on our priorities for the next two years! You voted in November because you care about our political future; now make your voice heard and help set our agenda through the “Program planning” process.
- Help the LWV plan how to Make Democracy Work in California and our communities.
- What are the areas of concern to us here in _________? Join us to discuss how to advocate and educate on those issues!
- What issues should the LWV emphasize in the next two years for advocacy or community education?
- Was there an issue on the ballot this year on which you wished the League had been able to take a stand? Join our discussion about issues to study!
- If you want to help design the impact we will have for the next two years, then attend the Program planning meeting. It’s the start of the grassroots process and the place to voice your opinions.

PROGRAM PLANNING PROCESS

The goal for your meeting(s) is to decide on your League’s recommendations for Issues for Emphasis—those timely and critical issues on which League resources for study, action, and community education will be concentrated.

The state League’s biennial adoption of a Program at the LWVC Convention has two parts: 1) decisions on retaining or dropping the current LWVC positions; and 2) adoption of priorities for the coming biennium—the Issues for Emphasis. In 2016 we changed our protocol and are no longer asking local Leagues to discuss and recommend retaining, dropping, or updating each LWVC position. Instead, we’re asking you to spend your time considering where our focus should be over the next two years. The LWVC board will consult our subject specialists—the people who guide our work in the various program areas—about retaining or dropping the positions. Of course, we always welcome any suggestions your League would like to send us. There’s a space for comments at the end of the online response form, or you can send an email message to advocacy@lwvc.org.

IDEAS FOR YOUR VIRTUAL MEETINGS: SETTING A WELCOMING TONE

- Schedule some time for people to socialize, to catch up with longtime acquaintances, and meet a few new people. Ask an inclusive icebreaker question. If you expect a large group, consider scheduling time in smaller groups (break out rooms). These could be randomly assigned, and change after 10-15 minutes, so people have time to chat with a variety of people. Use polls to get input for some of the proposals. Here are a few resources to run an engaging online meeting. Zoom Recs for Running Engaging Online Events; How to facilitate engaging online meetings with Zoom and How Smart Leaders Create Engagement in Zoom Meetings.

- Welcome new members and guests. Yes, guests are welcome although they cannot contribute to the consensus that your members reach. Program planning is a great way to engage community partners and friends of the League, and to introduce prospective members to how the League works.

- Make it a party! Some Leagues combine program planning with their holiday party. You can create a festive atmosphere by playing music or suggesting that people bring some food or drink to the event. Warm up before the formal meeting with a Zoom dance party!

- Schedule public meetings for evenings or weekends to expand their inclusiveness.

- Here’s a resource to help ensure that your online meetings are accessible to people with disabilities.

- Twitter and other forms of social media can be used to engage those unable to attend the meeting as well as those in the room. A robust social media plan includes communication before, during, and after the meeting. Consider creating a Twitter hashtag that will allow people to follow the conversation and submit questions in real-time. Advertise the hashtag during the meeting and encourage participants to use it to engage and educate their communities. Be sure to follow up and answer any questions posed via social media. Here is a suggestion for a hashtag to use: “#PlanOurPrioritiesLA (or #PlanOurPrioritiesSF, etc.)

YOUR MEETING AGENDA

We suggest you structure your agenda in this general manner.

1. Discuss League positions and recent program work. What do we know is already on our plate? What opportunities have been identified? Will priorities change as we address new circumstances?

While reviewing all adopted positions is no longer a requirement, you might open your discussion by considering some LWVC positions and how we have used them. Our LWVC Advocacy Wrap-Up 2020 can serve as background for your discussion of priorities and information about any positions you might want to consider for updating or dropping. Remember that state and local League program work also relies on LWVUS positions; consult the LWVUS publication Impact on Issues.

Recognizing work already on our plate and other areas where we see opportunities to have an impact. Refer to our Notes on Ongoing Work and Opportunities. The national Campaign for Making Democracy Work readopted at the LWVUS convention in June 2020 will be part of the LWVC’s and local Leagues’ focus in the coming year. Be sure to discuss how your League plans to participate in these efforts.

Also think about recent LWVC work in several program areas that is likely to merit continuing advocacy, community education, and/or study. And finally, take a look at new opportunities and challenges that our state and local communities may be encountering; are there areas where our priorities should shift?

2. Issues for Emphasis. Here’s your opportunity to select issues you’d like the League to prioritize for the next two years.

Think both short and long term. Where should we engage, where can we make a difference? How will we go about that? The choices are:

- Community education about an issue.
- Advocacy on an issue.
- Study of an issue (a traditional study or possibly a concurrence with a position reached by another League or the recommendations of a resource committee).
- An update study of an issue on which the LWVC already has a position.
- Any combination of these—for example, advocacy on one aspect of an issue while another aspect is being studied or updated. Or a combination of action and community education on the same issue.

Consider asking well-versed, experienced members to act as resources. You could invite different people to report on various program areas and ask them to briefly explain how League positions have been used in the past, what has kept them from being able to act on issues important to your community, and what they would like to do if they had more direction or support. Submit your recommendations to the online response form by March 1, 2021.

POINTS TO CONSIDER AS YOU CHOOSE ISSUES FOR EMPHASIS

Criteria to consider in choosing priorities.

- Is this an issue that would attract participation from the community and our members? Would it entice new members? Diverse members?
- Is this an issue on which legislative or regulatory action is needed? Will political realities permit effective government action during the next two years?
- Does this issue involve a need not being well met by other groups?
- Is there member interest and commitment to this topic?
- Could the League play a significant role in impacting community concern and/or public policy decisions on this issue? Does it further our long-term vision and impact?
- Do we have the capacity (staff, members/volunteers, funds, project management) to take on this issue? Is it an issue that will attract financial support?
- If this is a topic for study, will the issue still be timely when the study is completed in several years?

If you want to propose a new study or an update of a current position, consider these definitions and resources.

A Study

A “study” is the process of gathering information for discussion by members with the aim of reaching consensus and establishing a position.

An Update Study

An “update study” is a study of limited scope to reevaluate an existing position in light of new information, changed circumstances, and/or conflict with another League position. The goal is consideration of a change in position.

Be familiar with the policies for the study process and timeline derived from the LWVC Policies and Procedures at P-13. You may also want to consult How to Direct a State Study before making this recommendation, as you will be asked to provide names of members willing to work on the study.

Adopting a position by concurrence. “Concurrence” is the act of agreeing with or concurring with, a position reached by another League, or study committee, task force, or board. If your League would like to suggest that delegates to Convention 2021 adopt a position by concurrence, it is important that you follow the procedure for concurrence from LWVC Policies and Procedures at P-12.

PROGRAM PLANNING RESPONSE FORM DUE MARCH 1, 2021

Please submit your League's response using our online response form no later than March 1, 2021. In addition to background information about your League and how you arrived at your recommendations, we ask you to:

- List your recommendations for Issues for Emphasis on which the League should focus in 2021 – 2023 along with names of members who would be willing to work on those issues; and
- Tell us whether you support adding a new position through the concurrence process.

The online form will help us efficiently compile and evaluate all the responses, so please let us know if you need help using it. If you would like to collect your members' ideas on a printed form during your meeting, here is a Word version of the survey to download.

DON'T FORGET LOCAL PROGRAM PLANNING!

All the information given here is about Program planning for the LWVC—for the state-level League positions and priorities. Please also remember that you need to do Program planning for your local positions and priorities, and make sure that your members understand how important their voices are in all of these activities.

LWVC CONVENTION

The Program planning process culminates in the delegates' adoption of the statewide program at our statewide convention in 2021. Every member is encouraged to attend; find out more on the Convention Blog (lwvc.wordpress.com). We will be posting more information there as it becomes available; keep checking the blog, the LWVC Leaders' Updates, and the Upcoming Events page on lwvc.org.
