From the President’s Desk

I hope this VOTER finds you in good health!

The emerging epidemic of COVID-19 has transformed the League. The office is operating digitally and our office administrator, Cecilia “Ceci” Silva, is working from home. If you call the office, you will end up at voicemail. Please leave a message so we can retrieve your message from the office computer. You can also send an email. Please respect the operating hours of 10:00am to 3:00pm when you are waiting for a response.

There are several people receiving all LWVD communications and material in the mail. A mailing will have been sent before this VOTER issue asking if we can communicate with you via email during this crisis. Volunteers will also be calling you to follow up.

Update on League events:

- April Unit meetings have been cancelled.
- Most other events are on hold. We will keep you posted as information becomes available.
  - The program Women’s Vote: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow which was to be on March 19 is being rescheduled.
  - April 18, 2020: LWVTX Convention will be conducted via Zoom. See related article.
  - New Texas Symphony Orchestra’s “Celebrate Women” concert will be folded into their concert scheduled for May 31. This is a free concert under the direction of Dr. Kathryn D. Brown.   - The LWVD Annual Meeting: Our Annual Meeting will be conducted via Zoom software on May 16th. We will send more information about this with the Annual Meeting Workbook mailing.
  - June 25 - 29, 2020: LWVUS Convention in Washington, DC. See related article.

Thank you for all your efforts to Make Democracy Work!

Elections:
- Did you have problems with your mail-in ballot in the Primary? LWVTX is looking for any League member who had their mail in ballot disqualified because of their signature. Email Grace Chimene at gchimene@lwvtexas.org and Hani Mirza at TCRP hani@texascivilrightsproject.org
- Upcoming elections:
  - May 2 - Joint Election for Cities and Schools. These local elections will be rescheduled.
  - July 14 - Democratic and Republican Primary Run-off Elections. Date may change.
  - November 3, 2020: Election Day Please visit DallasCountyVotes.org for the latest information regarding both municipal and runoff elections
- Due to the COVID-19 epidemic, if you are disabled, or at least 65 years of age; will be in jail during early voting or election day; or will be out of the county during early voting or election day; I urge you to consider a mail-in ballot. Please go to Dallas County Elections’ website, https://www.dallascountyvotes.org/elections-office/documents-and-forms/ for information.

What you can do in the meantime:
- At the March unit meetings we provided a listing of books and movies relating to voting rights. Please send us your preferences. And, help us select and develop a schedule for enjoying them. You can find the lists on the website event page: https://my.lwv.org/texas/dallas/calendar
- Use your YEO (Your Elected Officials) to write, email, and/or call your elected officials. If you don’t have a printed one please go to our website for the information: https://my.lwv.org/texas/dallas/your-elected-officials.
  a. Advocacy suggestion: ask for universal mail in ballots during the pandemic.
- Please fill out your Census 2020 form or go online and complete. I did ours as soon as it arrived. They said it would take 10 minutes to do and they were correct. April 1 was the official Census Day, but you should have received your questionnaire letters in mid-March. Please go online or fill out the paper form and send it in as soon as you get it. The Census 2020 staff hope that 70% of the population will fill out their forms so staff can focus on the 30% that will be hard to count: children age 5 and below; minorities, and those living in poverty. As we get information on changes responding to the pandemic we will post them on the website.
Call to LWVTX State Convention:

Due to the pandemic the LWVTX convention will be held online this year on April 18 beginning at 1:00pm. It is expected to last 2 to 4 hours. LWVD can send 30 delegates to the state convention and only delegates will be allowed to participate. In order to serve as a delegate, you must be a member of LWVD and be willing to learn how to participate on your phone or use the Zoom app on your computer, if you are not already familiar with it.

If you want to serve as a delegate, please let the office and me know by April 4th. I will submit your name and email address to LWVTX. More information will be shared via email both before and after this issue of the VOTER. We will practice the Zoom app when we meet online (time to be determined on April 5th) to discuss the business of the convention. There will also be work sessions related to the items on the agenda and one on how to use Zoom.

Call for the National Convention:

LWV US National Convention will be held from June 25 to 28th in Washington, D.C.

This is from the convention website: Update on Potential Impact of the Coronavirus:

Please know that LWVUS’s first priority is the health, safety and well-being of everyone involved with Convention. We are taking all developments concerning the Coronavirus (Covid-19) very seriously. There are no plans to postpone or cancel Convention. We will continue to monitor the situation to ensure the highest possible degree of hygiene and safety is maintained. Should the situation change we will issue updates as necessary.

If you would like to go to the national convention register here: https://my.lwv.org/california/oakland/event/lwvus-national-convention-2020 . LWVD can send 7 delegates to National. To be a delegate you must be a member of LWVD. If you are planning to go and want to serve as a delegate, please contact the office at 214 688-4125; or via email at lwvdallas@sbcglobal.net or to my email below.

Thank you, Diane Tasian, president@mylwvdallas.org

Rebate: Tom Thumb (Albertsons-Safeway)

REMEMBER THE LEAGUE IN YOUR WILL

One hundred years ago, on February 14, 1920, the League of Women Voters was created in anticipation of the adoption of the 19th amendment to help women learn about voting. Ever since, it has been helping people learn about the issues and what the candidates’ positions are on the issues. It has been fighting to protect people’s right to vote, to preserve fair and honest government, and to promote the rule of law and international cooperation around the world.

If these are things that you value, consider making a gift to the League through your will. You can leave a fixed amount of money or a percentage of your estate to the League. You can also give from your IRA if you are 70½ without paying taxes on that money. Contact Linda Wassenich at LindaVote@gmail.com or 214-368-5305 if you have questions or want the wording for making a bequest ever since in your will.

WANT TO SERVE ON THE LEAGUE BOARD?

The Nominating Committee is looking for people who are interested in serving on the board or on a committee that a board member heads up. The board meets on the first Saturday of the month from 10:00 am until noon, usually at the League office or at the Meadows Conference Center. Meeting on Saturday was done to accommodate the schedule of working board members. In the past, the board met on the first Thursday of the month at noon.

If you have any questions or want to explore the idea of board service more thoroughly, please contact chair Eileen Rosenblum (eileen.rosenblum@gmail.com; 469-879-8801) or Linda Wassenich (LindaVote@gmail.com; 214-368-5305).
