Your Ballot and Ranked Choice Voting in Arlington

Wed., Apr. 19

6:30 - 7:30 PM

Central Library - Barbara M. Donnellan Auditorium

1015 N. Quincy St. 22201

Arlington will use Ranked Choice Voting in the June 20 primary; find out what the ballot will look like.

Voters in the June 20 primary will vote to nominate candidates for the two open seats for Arlington County Board using Ranked Choice Voting (RCV). RCV is a process that allows voters to rank candidates for a particular office in order of preference. The ballot and the way you will vote be different from the "traditional" way.

Join the League of Women Voters of Arlington and Alexandria City and Liz White, Executive Director of UpVote Virginia, as they explain what to expect about your ballot and the methodology of voting using RCV.

You will have a chance to ask questions and practice marking a RCV ballot.
