

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 20, 2017
www.lwvga.org

Contact: Marla Bexley-Lovell
(404) 522-4598
Marla@lwvga.org

Are You Ready to Vote? Know before you Go!
THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF GEORGIA RELEASES ONLINE VOTER GUIDE

October 20, 2017 [Atlanta, GA] –The League of Women Voters of Georgia reminds voters that early voting for the General Elections began Monday! To aid Georgia citizens to make the most informed vote, the League has published a non-partisan online voter guide.

The 2017 Voter Guide includes information on local Mayoral, City Council, County Commission and various Boards of Education races.

The 2017 voter guide is easy to use--simply enter your address and zip code to view information provided by the candidates. Citizens may access the Voter Guide by visiting: www.lwvga.org and www.vote411.org.

The League of Women Voters of Georgia encourages every voter to review the following to eliminate any delay in casting your vote:

- o Make sure to check your voter registration, sample ballot, and poll location through the Secretary of State Office. (www.sos.ga.gov) Voters can be removed from the rolls due to an extended period of inactivity.
- o Check out early voting opportunities in your county. Early Voting will be conducted weekdays October 16th – November 3rd and on Saturday, October 28th. Visit www.sos.ga.gov - Elections tab for locations/hours.
- o Before going to the polls, make sure to research the candidates and issues that will appear on the ballot. The 2017 Voter Guide is an excellent tool to help voters. Get informed and then exercise your right to vote!
- o All voters should carry an acceptable photo identification to the polls. Information on Voter Photo ID Cards and the full list of acceptable photo identification is available at the Secretary of State's office. (www.sos.ga.gov)
- o Finally, remind your friends, family, and community members of the importance of voting. Every election is important, so bring a family member or friend to the polls with you! Your vote is your voice.

The League of Women Voters of Georgia is a non-partisan organization that has promoted citizens' education and active involvement in government since 1920. The League continues their dedication to empowering voters through education initiatives and partnerships with organizations that are also committed to educating Georgia voters.

###