Hello, League of Women Voters of Wellesley!

It's finally that time of year -the kids are back in school, the leaves are starting to change, and maybe the temperature will dip into the 60s one day soon...

Your loyal Board Members have been hard at work this summer plotting and planning for a program year full of great topics for discussion and lots of opportunities for you to join us in providing education and support for all voters in Wellesley.

Join us and see what's happening this year.

Opening Meeting Wednesday, September 27 @ 7PM

(Program starts promptly at 7:30pm)

League of Women Voters of Wellesley and Wellesley Free Library present:

Who Is Protecting Your Right to Read?

A Discussion with: Mary Ann Cluggish, Mass Board of Library Commissioners, and Jamie Jurgensen, Director, Wellesley Free Library

Across the nation, libraries are dealing with an increasing number of book challenges - demands to remove one or often multiple books from a library's collection, to prevent the books from being read or even accessed. The American Library Association reports a record number of 2,571 unique titles were challenged in 2022, a 38% increase from 2021. In Massachusetts, library disruptions and book challenges have quadrupled. The challenges are happening both in public and school libraries. Libraries have long been a cherished resource for any person to find information on any topic. Who decides what materials are on the shelves in our local and school libraries? What is the role of the State in ensuring our right to read? Legislation has been filed in Massachusetts to help limit book challenges and book banning in our state.

Join us in the Wakelin Room, Wellesley Free Library, 520 Washington Street, at 7:30 PM to learn more about the disturbing trend of book banning as well as what libraries and the State legislature can do about it.

LWVMA: DAY ON THE HILL, Wednesday October 11, 9:30am to 12pm

It's time to act together and raise our collective voice on Beacon Hill.

Please join all our MA Leagues for Act for the Future: Voting, Maternal Health, Firearms, and PFAS, at the Massachusetts State House.

Day on the Hill is the League's own lobby day each legislative session. Your advocacy this session has already led to victories for LWVMA policy priorities. Let's keep up the momentum by advocating for voting rights including same day registration, maternal health, gun violence prevention, and protection from forever chemicals known as PFAS. We will be briefed on the bills and then go to our legislators' offices to meet with them.

Empowerment Through Inclusion: LWWV's Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Digest

Welcome, all LWWV members! We are looking forward to our best year yet of registering voters, providing voter information, and advocating for voting rights. We have worked diligently to update and improve our members' League experience and we invite each of you to attend our board meetings on the second Tuesday of every month. At the beginning of every board meeting, we engage in robust discussions about diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging, social justice, and accountability; and about how these ideas dovetail with the League's mission. These meetings serve as a dynamic platform where curiosity transforms into knowledge and passive interest evolves into active engagement. By participating, members gain insight into the practical applications of these principles. They witness firsthand how diversity amplifies our voices, equity ensures fairness in our actions, and inclusion deepens into belonging for all. Additionally, discussions on social justice and accountability underscore our commitment to addressing systemic issues. In essence, board meetings serve as the crucible where theory meets practice, fostering a deeper connection to the League's work and its unyielding dedication to empowering all voters and promoting democracy. Your presence is not just encouraged; it is essential to collectively shaping a better future. All Board Meeting times and locations can be found here on our website. Questions? Email us. Thank you for your consideration and I hope to see you at our October 10th 12:30-2:30 PM board meeting in room 008 at the Warren Building.
