

March 2026

The upcoming town election is our opportunity to weigh in on the local leadership and decisions that shape our community every day. From budgets to schools to public services, these choices matter — and turnout makes a real difference. To help you prepare, the League of Women Voters provides clear, nonpartisan voter information. We hope you'll take advantage of the resources provided below, and be sure to cast your ballot on Tuesday, March 3rd!
