April 2023

Empowering Voters. Defending Democracy.

A record number of bills passed through the Iowa Legislature this year with more to come before the final scheduled date of the session, April 28. Thanks go to our Advocacy Committee which tracks bills of interest to the League and creates Action Alerts to let us know who to contact about issues of concern. Sign up with Shannon Patrick to receive Action Alerts. Democracy only works if people participate!

Thanks also go to Susie Corbin-Muir and the Voter Services Committee for organizing informative, interactive Saturday morning Legislative Forums. See the LWVJC website or Facebook page to view the forums you missed.

Our Education Committee, led by Rebecca Conard, developed three outstanding presentations for members and the public. If you missed any, you can access them on the Iowa City Public Library’s YouTube channel — search for Ballot Basics: Voting Matters, Transparency Matters, and Abortion History Matters.

Spring is the time for regeneration and growth. In that sentiment, we are rejuvenating our popular social and educational gathering, Making Connections, that were held pre-COVID. Please join us April 27, 5:30-7 p.m. for appetizers and discussion at the home of Gaylen and Tony Wobeter, 2605 Bluffwood Circle, Iowa City. There is plenty of on-street parking. Eileen Beran will share her experience running for Iowa House District 92 at the meeting.

Twelve members enjoyed coffee and spirited conversation at our first Casual Coffee. After a few years of COVID isolation, it was wonderful to reconnect with League members. We hope to see you at the next Casual Coffee, Wednesday, April 12, at Poindexter Coffee in the Graduate Hotel, in downtown Iowa City.

There is still time to sign up for the LWVIA Defending Democracy Award Dinner at the Jasper Winery in Des Moines on April 13. Look for emails from the state League; they are taking reservations

Voter Deadline

The Voter is issued the last Friday of the month to provide readers advance notice of activities. The May Voter deadline is April 24 at 5 p.m.

through April 4. Let Miriam Timmer-Hackert know if you are interested in carpooling.

Add May 23, 5:30-7 p.m., to your calendar for LWVJC Annual Membership & Business Meeting that will be held at the Unitarian Universalist Society. At this event we will vote on our delegates to the Iowa convention in Dubuque which will be held June 10-11. We have to pay for 14 voting delegates regardless of how many can go, and if we want we can send nonvoting delegates as well. LWVUS President Dr. Deb Turner will be the keynote speaker. Please let Miriam know if you want to join our delegation and we will figure out transportation and sharing hotel rooms.

Spring

Sister April,

With Cinderella grace

And sunblown hair,

Whispers bits of song

And beckons us,

Come dance!

Advocacy Update

The legislature continues to provide plenty of opportunities for action from the advocacy committee. There are a number of sensible bills quietly moving through the system. However, this session has been remarkable for the sheer volume of bills that defy basic principles of sound governance or lack the commitment to the common good that could be taken for granted from any party even a few years ago.

The committee has tracked, researched and either acted on or issued calls to action on a range of issues from a consultancy-led state government redesign to stripping the State Auditor of the ability to conduct audits, to the reinstating the death penalty; as well as education, eminent domain, SNAP benefits, anti-abortion pregnancy centers, anti-LGBTQ laws, removing gender balance on governmental boards and much more.

While the committee has no power to stop so many and such politically-driven bills, it is nonetheless important to educate League members, legislators, and the broader public of this alarming change. It has gone from an atmosphere of relative bipartisanship and respect for minority party rights to a callously majoritarian one, where the majority party and those who agree with them proceed with little apparent regard for other points of view.

Outside of the day-to-day legislative workings, committee members are also working diligently to create a guide to track legislation; the process by which a bill moves through the legislature is not intuitive. This guide is intended to aid LWVJC members and potentially other Leagues, partner organizations, or the public to easily follow and weigh in on legislation of interest to them. The information has been drafted by a workgroup and will soon be reviewed by the advocacy committee.

Advocacy Chair

Embracing DEI

The Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee is offering its three-session workshop to League members next month! Currently, issues related to DEI are affecting policies and practices in education, medical care, law enforcement, and housing . . . essentially all the important elements of our community. Studying, discussing and processing the effects of systemic racism, identifying impediments to social justice in our community and determining how we, as individuals, can make a difference are the goals of this experience.

We have worked with several local organizations to raise awareness of social justice issues, including the Rotary Club and the Johnson County Affordable Housing Coalition. Now, we are encouraging our LWVJC members to be educated and active in addressing these issues.

The goals of this workshop are to facilitate discussion and understanding of various life experiences affecting individuals, especially as they relate to social justice issues and solutions. The workshop includes videos, readings, discussion and, yes, some homework!

Please join us! Our first meeting is on Tuesday, April 11, at 7 - 8:30 p.m., in the Iowa City Public Library.

The workshop will continue on subsequent Tuesdays in April and May as determined with input from the participants. To register or for more information, email: Bea Hicks at beacruz@aol.com, OR Anne Spencer at spencerfarms@gmail.com.

Education Committee

The League is thankful for our education partners, The Gazette and the Iowa City Public Library. Both were instrumental in bringing the League education programming to the public.

We also appreciate LWVIA President Terese Grant's message to League presidents across Iowa urging them to remind their members about the programming.

We are grateful the Iowa City Public Library has the ability to stream the programming in real time. If you missed any of the League's speaker series programs, they can be viewed on the Iowa City Public Library's YouTube channel by searching for Ballot Basics: Voting Matters, Transparency Matters, and Abortion History Matters and the League of Women Voters of Johnson County. Nearly 300 people have viewed the online programming to date.

The most recent program, Abortion History Masters, presented by Patricia Cline Cohen and Lina-Maria Murillo, was the third program in our series and drew the largest in-person audience with nearly 70 in-house and online participants .

Advocating for reproductive rights is challenging. Voices raised in support reminds others that reproductive rights must include the freedom to make a decision when and if to start a family.

The education committee is pleased to welcome Susan Enzle to the committee as program planning continues for the foreseeable future.

Membership

Active membership for LWVJC is currently at 151 members. We welcome the following new members: Mary McCarthy and Christine Kapp.

Dues are $70 per year for individual, $105 for household, or $20 for student membership.

Please consider inviting a friend or a newer member to accompany you when attending one of our upcoming in-person events. The May annual meeting will be held Tuesday, May 23. See the Voter calendar for details.

THE LWV UPPER MISSISSIPPI RIVER REGION INTER LEAGUE ORGANIZATION

Upper Mississippi River Region InterLeague Organization (UMRRILO)

Dear Colleagues, it's time to Celebrate the Mississippi River again! We had a great time last year at the National Mississippi River Museum in Dubuque with our tour guide, Jarod McGovern. If you get a chance go to the museum, look him up. He's such a fine professional. In 2021, we dined along the Mississippi River and visited Eagle Park in Clinton. We learned from our friend Tim Wagner of the Isaac Walton League about soil quality.

This year, the plan is to dine at the Stone Cliff Brewery in Dubuque and drive to the Galena Public Library for a presentation from Steve Repp about the History of the Mississippi River on Friday, June 9, just before the annual LWVIA convention. Let me know if you're interested. Email me: nancy55555@icloud.com with Mississippi River in the subject line.

The UMRR-ILO will hold its bimonthly, meeting Monday, April 3. The board meets at 10 a.m. The webinar program on Groundwater in the Driftless area will be held from 1 – 3 p.m. Visit the LWV Upper Mississippi River Region Facebook page LWVVUMRR or the blog and click here to register. Pictures and information about the Driftless Music Garden in Wisconsin are on the website, lwvumrr.org. The speakers will examine how groundwater works and its connections to surface water, and how land use impacts drinking water.

If you're thinking Iowa, think about the Farm Bill. Call your U.S. senators and representatives and ask them to support the bill. LWVIA President Terese Grant has signed a letter of support for this important bill. Of course, more money is always needed for projects, but the ask this year includes grants for those living along the Mississippi River to do what they think is necessary to prevent soil loss (from runoff) and protect habitats to keep the river flowing naturally. Representatives like to hear “for flood control” in your conversation.

U.S. Reps. Marionette Miller-Meeks and Randy Feenstra have ideas about what the Farm Bill should look like: <https://thehill.com/policy/future-of-farming/3904321-the-2023-farm-bill-protecting-us-agricultures-productivity-profitability-and-competitiveness/>

You might remember a few years ago, I wrote about PFAS (human-made per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances) and the dangers of this chemical mix. Iowa State University received $1 million grant to study PFAS. Last year, the Iowa Department of Natural Resources began testing Iowa water for PFAS. Three Iowa rivers have been cited for too much PFAS, according to EPA standards, which is 4 parts per trillion, or 4 nanograms per liter. World Health Organization’s, Dr. Maria Neira, Director of Public Health and Environment, states any level is dangerous and should be eradicated.

Among other things, PFAS cause cancer. Go to EPA.org and check the links concerning PFAS. There is a hearing scheduled for May 4 in Iowa and you can make comments in writing now.

Thanks go to Sydney Conger for bringing this information to my attention: proposed drinking water standards for PFAS chemicals. The complete summary and results can be found at iowadnr.gov.

Voter Registration

Spring is in the air – so can voter registration events be far behind? City and School elections will be held Tuesday, Nov. 7, so we will be out distributing information about the election and ensuring people are registered to vote.

Planning for voter registration events has started, and here is a sampling of what we can look forward to. We will participate in the Summer of the Arts Iowa Arts Festival in downtown Iowa City on Saturday, June 3. We will also be back at the South District Summer Diversity Markets on Saturdays, July 8, 15, 22, 29, and August 5, 12, and 19. And, we have multiple events scheduled for this year’s National Voter Registration Day on Tuesday, Sept. 19. And, of course, we are working on scheduling some days at the area food pantries, senior living facilities, high schools, and more.

If you are not already on the Voter Registration Committee list and want to be among the first to know the specifics of these upcoming voter registration events, just let me know (vickiandleon.aden@gmail.com) and I will ensure you are on the notification list.

Looking forward to seeing you at a future voter registration event!

Voter Service

The Voter Services Committee held three well-attended, in-person legislative forums over the past three months. We have learned so much by being able to interact with our legislators in these forums. We also learned a lot about what's on the minds of Johnson County citizens. And, finally, we have learned how important it is that we communicate with our legislators and media outlets.

On March 25, we took our forum to the Hills Community Center in hopes that the legislators who represent the counties that border Johnson County would join those whose representation is entirely inside Johnson County. Unfortunately, Sen. Dawn Driscoll and Reps. Heather Hora and Brad Sherman did not attend.

In attendance were Sens. Zach Wahls and Janice Weiner and Reps. Dave Jacoby, Amy Nielsen, Elinor Levin and Adam Zabner. We thank them for their hard work in Des Moines and their willingness to participate in the discussion of legislation coming out of this session.

Joining them in Hills were about 35 of their constituents as well as many online. The video of this forum, as well as videos from other LWVJC events, are available at <https://lwwjc.org/lwwjc-events/>.

The discussion included bills that have been passed, as well as, those still in the works. Among the important takeaways from this forum is the realization that we as citizens need to continue to make our voices heard both by contacting legislators and others in the government in Des Moines. Your emails, snail mail, and phone calls are important.

You can keep an eye on the legislation as well as find contact information for those in Des Moines at <https://www.legis.iowa.gov/>. Another way to express yourself is through letters to the editor. You can submit letters to any newspaper in the state. Find out about the newspapers in Iowa at <https://inaneews.com/find-iowa-newspaper/>. Write about something you care about and submit it widely to Iowa newspapers.

VOTE411.org — from LWVUS

Happy spring, League leaders!

Last week, LWVUS shared its 2022 Election Impact report, highlighting your impact in the 2022 midterm elections. Despite anti-voter laws, election mis- and disinformation, and poll worker shortages, we saw record-breaking turnout last November. Together, we reached more than 27 million voters, our largest voter engagement program to date! I encourage you to celebrate your impact and learn more about how you powered the vote in 2022. Read our report on www.lwv.org.

Over the past month I have shared updates on the new phase of our transformation journey: Framing the Future. As we shift into this new phase of our journey, your voice will be critical in shaping and framing our future. In the coming weeks, all members will receive an invitation to complete a short survey about their unique experiences in the League. League experience is broad and diverse, and we want to hear from every voice in our League community. Stay tuned for a survey link in early April.

I am also excited to announce that we have assembled our four key working groups, composed of local and state League members from across the country. Over the next few months, these groups will convene to inform and develop four key pillars of this phase: League capacity, our business model, building power through data, and functional specification (our membership system).

The results of the all-member survey and the insights from our core working groups will guide the next steps of our transformation journey. Leagues can find information on working groups, the Framing the Future phase, and next steps on the League Management Site. For questions, please reach out to transformation@lwv.org.

Finally, I encourage you to check out our upcoming webinars and trainings. These provide great opportunities to enhance your League work. From office hours to an introduction to our new Legal Center, LWVUS is here to support Leagues as you ramp up for local elections and prepare for a busy 2024.

And remember: registration is now open for Council 2023! I look forward to coming together with state League leaders this June to expand on our transformation journey and be in community with one another. Make sure to register before April 2 to receive the early bird price. State leaders can learn more and register here.

LWVIA Public Policy Priorities

VOTING

Promote equal access to voting and ensure all votes are counted. Iowa should adopt automatic voter registration and pass a constitutional amendment allowing Iowans with felony convictions to vote after time served.

TRANSPARENCY

Demand government accountability and transparency by requiring all amendments and bills discussed in committee to be available to the public prior to a vote. Encourage direct citizen participation by continuing virtual committee and subcommittee meetings.

EDUCATION

Keep public money in public schools, fully fund public schools, and continue to expand access to affordable childcare.

2023 State Public Policy Priorities

REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS

Guarantee access to the full range of women's reproductive health services, make contraception available without prescription, and ensure Medicaid services are comprehensive and accessible.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Prevent human trafficking in all of its forms, support its victims, and enact "Safe Harbor" legislation to protect human trafficking survivors from criminal prosecution.

ENVIRONMENT

Increase funding for environment and water quality initiatives, including REAP, and develop state climate change strategies.
