

What to Say

Effective Get-Out-the-Vote Conversations

Table of Contents

Preface	3
1. Connect With the Voter	4
2. Focus on Voting	8
3. Use Gentle Social Pressure	13
4. Help Make a Plan for Voting	19
5. Talking Around Excuses	23
6. Example Conversations	29
7. References	34

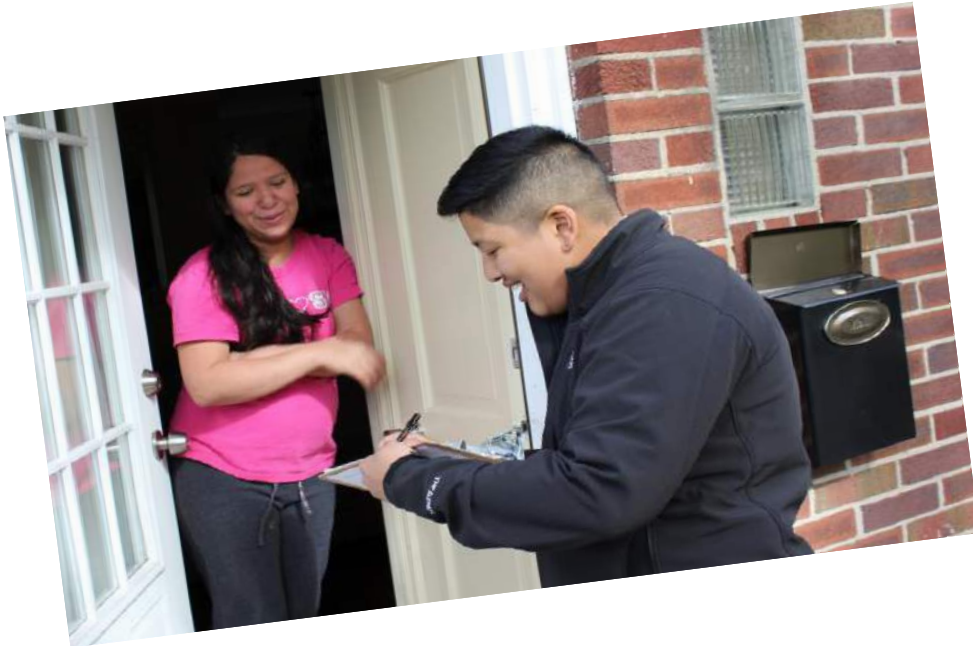

Preface

Welcome!

- This tutorial will assist you in talking about voting effectively.
 - To understand the principles behind effective GOTV campaigns, see Evidence-Based Practices for Voter Mobilization
 - For what works, see Tactics That Work for Voter Mobilization
 - See <https://my.lwv.org/texas/best-practices-gotv>
- The following snippets of conversation have been
 - adapted from research-based recommendations.
 - effective when delivered in a personalized, flexible manner.
- Always make a personal connection and focus on voting. But you don't have to cram all messages into every GOTV conversation.
- Use your own words!

1. Connect with the voter

Messengers with something in common with the community are more effective than outsiders.

- Acknowledge a commonality between you and your contact.
- Emphasize that you are local, e.g.:
 - A neighbor
 - From a local organization
- Be enthusiastic.
- Ask questions.
- Share a voting story of your own.

Connect with the voter

Emphasize a connection with the voter or that you are local.

- Hi, I'm [name].
 - I've seen you in my history class.
 - I'm your neighbor over on Saint Ives.
 - I'm from the local League of Women Voters.

Connect with the voter

Include a personal story somewhere in the conversation.

- I remember my first time voting. I had just turned 18 and was...
- I usually vote on my lunch hour at a polling place close to where I work because that's what's convenient for me. What will work for you?
- I dressed up as a suffragist, hat and all, and took my 9-year-old twins with me to the polling place last election.

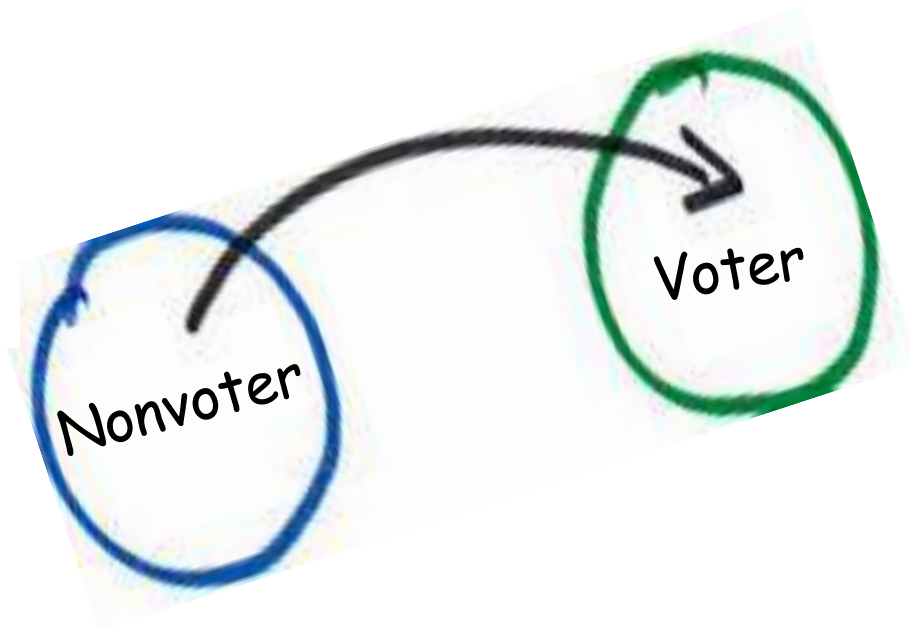

Connect with the voter

End with a tie-in to the voter.

- The last thing I want to ask is: Do you have any questions for me about voting?
- So, I have you down for voting on _____ over at _____ and we'll follow-up with you by_____.

2. Focus on voting

- The goal is to transform nonvoters into voters
 - not to change minds about an issue or a candidate.
- Advocating for issues may diminish your influence on voter turnout.
- The League does not support or oppose candidates or political parties

Focus on voting

Get to the point.

- I'm out talking with
 - students
 - neighbors
 - people in the park
 - the kind of people who vote
- about
 - the upcoming election
 - voting
 - voter registration
- Do you have a minute?

Focus on voting

I'm out here
today collecting reasons why people vote. Do you have a few minutes to talk
to me?

- What makes voting important to you?

or

- On a scale of 0 to 10, how likely are you to vote this election?
 - Great, we're collecting reasons people vote. What makes you say ___ rather than 2? (or 0 if they said 3 or below)

Focus on voting

I'm out here
today collecting
reasons why people vote. Do you have a few minutes to talk
to me?

or

- On a scale of 0 to 10
 - 0 being I'm never, ever going to vote,
 - 5 being I might vote, might not
 - and 10 being I'm a super-voter, I'm always going to vote and I'm definitely voting this time,
- what number describes you?
- ...and why did you say ____ instead of a 2?
- Well, the fact that you think voting is important is totally awesome, and I completely agree.

Focus on voting

I'm calling you today because you are the kind of person who votes. I won't take much of your time, but I want to make sure that you have everything you need to know about voting in the upcoming election.

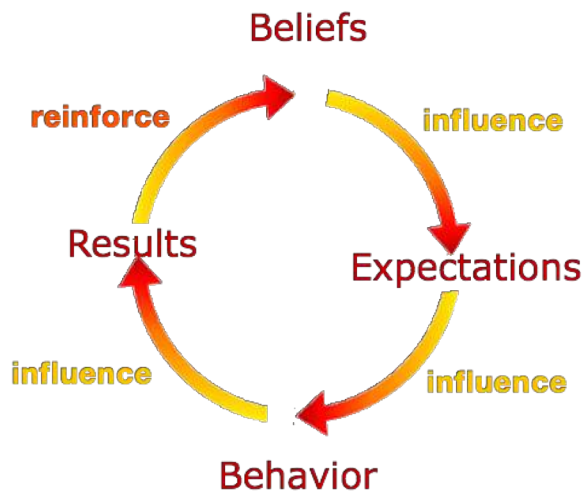

3. Use gentle social pressure

We are social creatures and want to fit in.

Use gentle social pressure

Be positive

Beware the self-fulfilling prophecy of voter apathy!

- Your [classmates, neighbors, etc.] have been telling me that they are definitely voting in this election. Do you plan on being a voter?
- We're expecting a high turnout this election.
- This is going to be a close election, so being a voter is very important in the outcome.

Use gentle social pressure

Acknowledge the anticipatory rewards of Early Voting.

Voting early shows your commitment to being a voter and lets you anticipate the outcome without worrying how you'll make it to the polls on a busy Tuesday.
And, you'll be bothered by fewer phone calls!

Use gentle social pressure

Let them know that others are paying attention to their vote.

- Congratulations on being a first-time voter! Remember that who you vote for is secret, but whether you vote is public record.
- I see from the public records that you vote sometimes but not every election. Will you be a voter this time?
- I see you were a voter last election. Thank you for being a responsible citizen!

Use gentle social pressure

Ask for a voting commitment.

I WILL VOTE!
MY VOTE IS MY VOICE

VOTE PLEDGE CARD

I pledge to vote in the November 7 General Election.

Signature _____

My Voting Plan

☐ I will vote by MAIL

☐ I will vote during EARLY VOTING October 24 - November 3

☐ I will vote on Election Day November 7

My polling place is _____

I will vote because: _____

- Can I count on you being a voter?
- Can your [classmates, neighbors, etc.] count on you to join them at the polls this election?
- Because you think voting is important, would you mind signing this pledge to vote?

Use gentle social pressure

Indicate how you will follow-up.

- What is the best number to reach you for a get-out-the-vote reminder? Would you like a call or a text?
- I'll remind you to vote by mailing you back your pledge card shortly before Election Day.
- I'll call you after the election to see how it went. Who you vote for is secret, but I'd like to know how it went for you at the polling place.

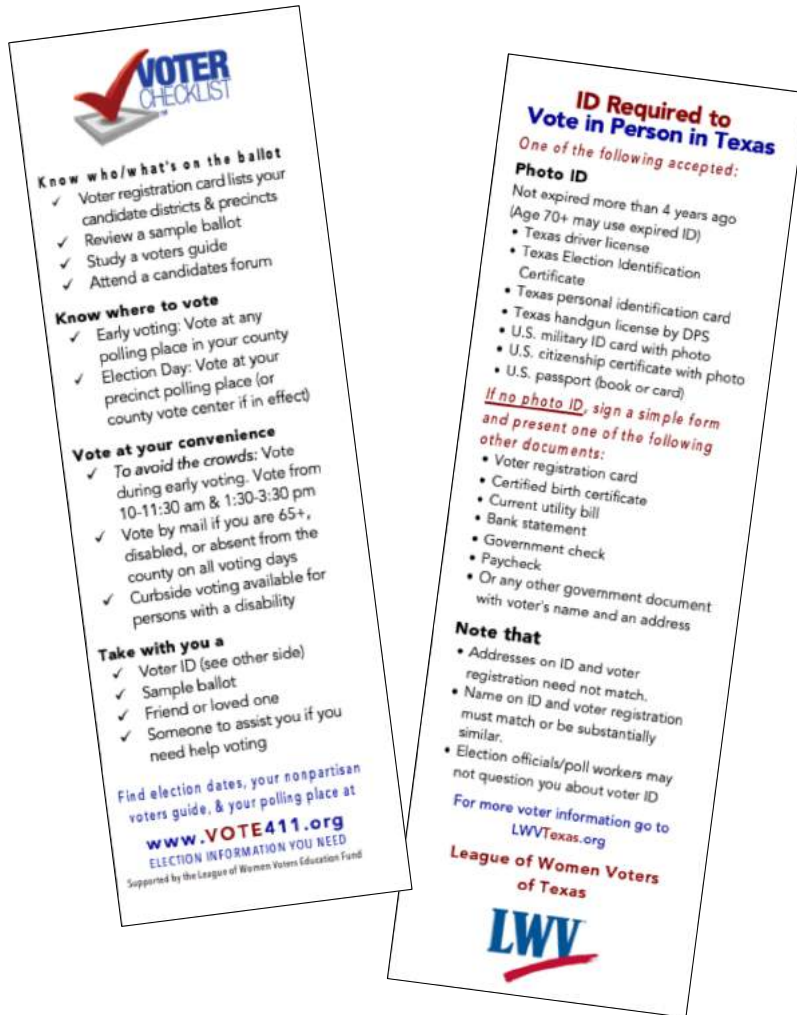

4. Help make a plan for voting

Getting potential voters to think through the steps they need to take makes them more likely to act on their intent to vote.

Find voter ID information at <https://my.lwv.org/texas/voter-id>

Help make a plan for voting

- Do you think you'll vote by mail, vote early, or vote on Election Day?
- Do you know where your polling place is?
- What day do you plan to vote? When will you go?

Voter Checklist Bookmark & Handout available at <https://my.LWV.org/Texas/Get-Out-Vote-0>

Help make a plan for voting

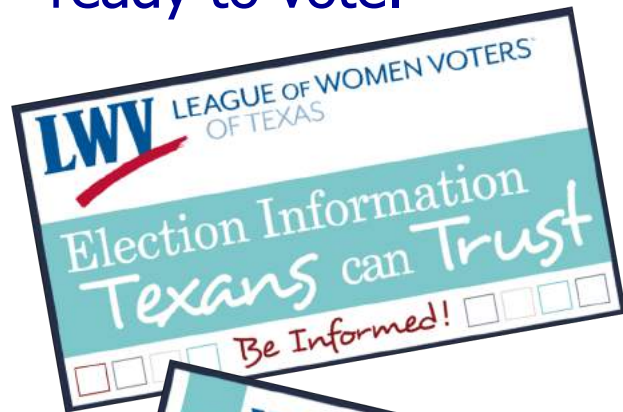

- Where will you be coming from? How will you get there?
- Will you go by yourself or with someone else?
- What ID will you take to the polling place?

Be a Texas Voter! Bookmarks individualized for each local League available at <https://my.LWV.org/Texas/Vote-It-Counts>

Help make a plan for voting

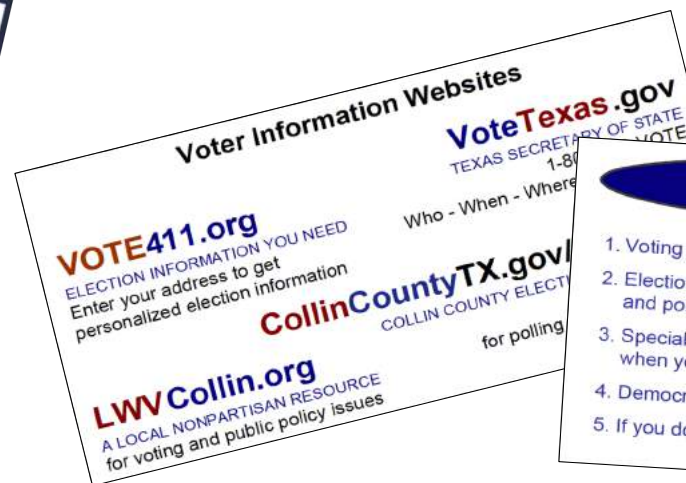

Assist voter in getting ready to vote.

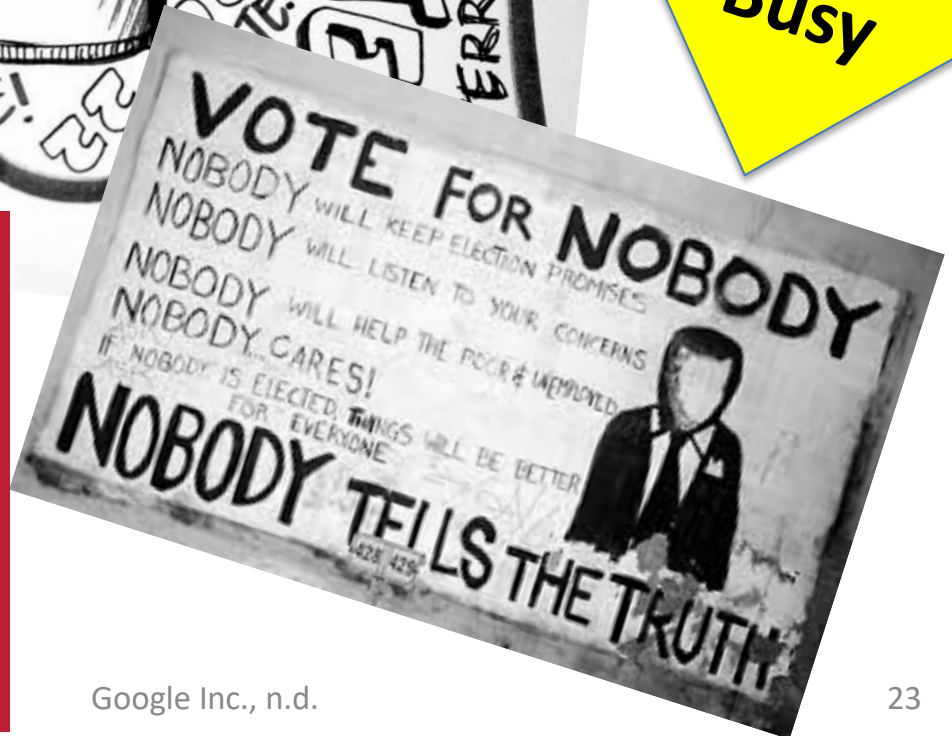

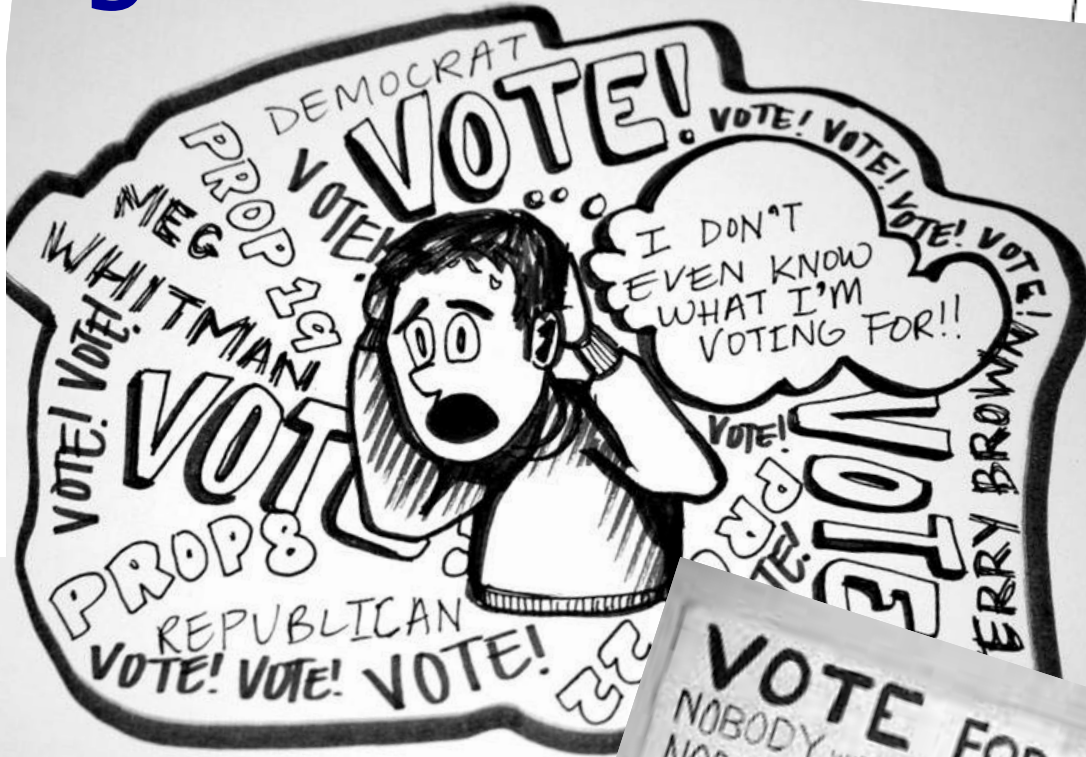

LWV-TX social media business card available at <https://my.LWV.org/Texas/Get-Out-Vote-0>

- Many people I've been talking to want more information about the candidates on the ballot. Can I help you with that?
 - Do you know about VOTE411? (explain)
 - Do you prefer a printed voters guide? (Provide or explain how to get one)
 - The League is holding a nonpartisan candidate forum....
 - These websites provide helpful information.... (provide state or local social media business card)

5. Talking around excuses

Talking around excuses

My vote doesn't count.

- Even in Texas we have close elections (give example).
- Not voting definitely doesn't count.
- Your vote is your voice. Even if it's not on the winning side, it can show there is another opinion.
- Votes count most in local elections and party primaries when there are fewer people voting.

Talking around excuses

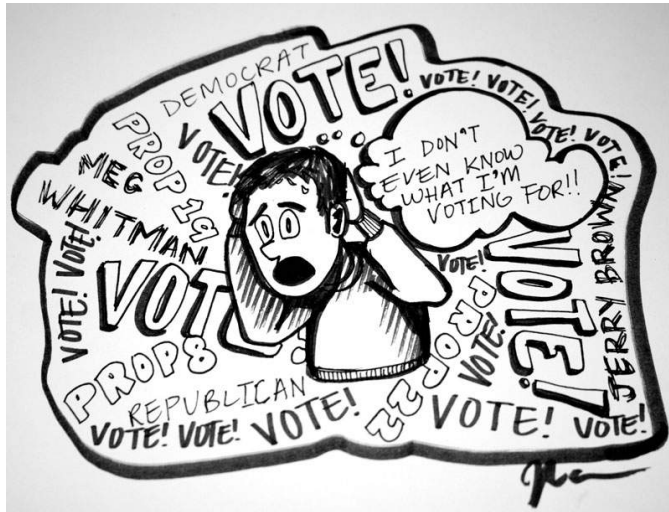

I don't have time.

- Can you vote on a Saturday or Sunday?
- Early voting offers additional times to vote, even on weekends, and you can generally avoid long lines.

Talking around excuses

I'm not well enough informed.

Figuring out what's on the ballot and whom to vote for can be mind-boggling, but there are some shortcuts...

- Do you know about VOTE411? (explain)
- Check out candidate websites, but remember they are biased.
- Ask your friends to help, and share the information.
- The League is holding a nonpartisan candidates forum on...

Talking around excuses

I don't like any of the candidates.

- Not voting lets others decide for you.
- No matter how you feel, one has to be closer to your views than another.
- Not voting benefits the one you least want elected.
- Voting in primaries helps choose the candidates.

Talking around excuses

I'm protesting against the system.

And those in power
appreciate your support for the status quo.

6. Example conversations

Example #1

Hi, I'm Elizabeth, your neighbor over on Saint Ives. And I'm just out today talking with neighbors about the upcoming election. Do you have a minute? ... The neighbors have been telling me that they are definitely going to vote in this election. Do you plan to be a voter? ... Do you know where to vote? ... For me, I usually go on my way to work because that works for me. Do you know what time you'll be voting? ... A tip, if you don't mind: Just set your alarm a little early so it gives you some extra time.

The official record shows that you voted in 2012 and 2016, but not in 2014. Can I count on you being a voter this year?

The last thing I have is, do you have any questions about voting? ... So we have you down for voting in the morning on ____ at ____ and we'll follow-up with you after the election just to see how it went. Thanks for your time.

Example #2

Hi, I'm Elizabeth. I'm out here today for the local League of Women Voters collecting reasons why people vote. Do you have a few minutes to talk to me? ... So, on a scale from 0 to 10, with 0 being I'm never, ever going to vote; 5 being I might vote, might not; and 10 being I'm a super-voter, I'm always going to vote, and I'm definitely voting in this election, what number describes you? ... And why did you say 6 instead of 2? ... Well, the fact that you think voting is important is totally awesome, and I completely agree. Because of that, would you mind taking a pledge to vote? ... Can you just fill this out for me? ... And if it's ok with you, we'd love to send you a text reminder before Election Day. Thank you so much.

Example #3

Can we count on you being a voter on or before Election Day?

If yes: Great! It sounds like a lot of people in [community] will be voting this year. It's an important election, and we're so excited that you'll have the chance to stand up for our community by casting a vote. Can I remind you of your polling place? ... Do you know when you might be voting on Tuesday...morning, afternoon, evening? Do you have a plan for getting there?

If no: OK, what other information can I provide to you to help make voting a little easier? I'd be happy to tell you a little more about what to expect at the polls....

Example #4

Elevator speech

Have your 30-second elevator speech ready to use anywhere with anyone!

I've been hearing a lot about the upcoming election. I'm voting because I know my vote is my voice...How important is it for you to be a voter in this election?

- Early voting is going on now. What are your plans for going to the polls?
- Can I count on you being a voter in this election?

7. References

- Angone, P. (2015). 7 tips to engaging millennials [Blog post]. All Groan Up. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/zd6m38h>
- Bedolla, L. G., & Michelson, M. R. (2012). Mobilizing inclusion: Transforming the electorate through get-out-the-vote campaigns. New Haven CT: Yale University Press.
- Borgida, E., Federico, C. M., & Sullivan, J. L. (2009). The political psychology of democratic citizenship. USA: Oxford University Press.
- British Council. (n.d.). Tell a story or personal anecdote [Blog post]. Learn English Teens. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/yake29mm>
- Bryan, C. J., Walton, G. M., Rogers, T., & Dweck, C. S. (2011). Motivating voter turnout by invoking the self. Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, 108(31), 12656-12657. Retrieved from <http://www.pnas.org/content/108/31/12653>
- Caprino, K. (2014, May 1). Quit trying to "engage" millennials. Forbes. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/ycmurrfu>
- Center for Civic Design. (2014). Choosing how to communicate with voters: Field guides to ensuring voter intent (Vol. 05; 2nd ed.). High Bridge, NJ: Author. Retrieved from <http://civicdesign.org/fieldguides/>
- Erkel, E. A., Schieffer, J., & Kenfield, M. (2017, February 25). Talking about voting. Paper presented at the IGNITE Texas State Conference, Dallas, TX.
- Gerber, A. S., Green, D. P., & Larimer, C. (2008). Social pressure and voter turnout: Evidence from a large-scale field experiment. American Political Science Review, 102(1), 33-48. Retrieved from <https://isps.yale.edu/research/publications/isps08-001>
- Gerber, A. S., Huber, G. A., Biggers, D. R., & Hendry, D. J. (2014). Ballot secrecy concerns and voter mobilization: New experimental evidence about message source, context, and the duration of mobilization effects. American Politics Research, 42(5), 896-923. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/y7epf6hf>
- Gerber, A. S., Huber, G. A., Doherty, D., Dowling, C. M., & Hill, S. J. (2013). Do perceptions of ballot secrecy influence turnout? Results from a field experiment. American Journal of Political Science, 57(3), 537-551. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/yaca653l>
- Gerber, A. S., & Rogers, T. (2009). Descriptive social norms and motivation to vote: Everybody's voting and so should you. The Journal of Politics, 71(1), 178-191. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/kf5d8x2>
- Google Inc. (n.d.). Google images. Retrieved from <https://images.google.com>
- Green, D. P., & Gerber, A. S. (2015). Get out the vote: How to increase voter turnout (3rd ed.). Washington, DC: Brookings Institution Press.
- Issenberg, S. (2012, October 3). Are you going to vote? Do you promise? Slate. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/9ohs2to>
- Libka, A. (2017, September 13). The value of pledge cards: A brief overview [Blog post]. Change Media Group. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/yagf6fu7>

- Miller, B. (2018). Fig. 6. Voting by nonprofit voters who signed pledge cards. Engaging new voters (pp. 12). Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/y7yx98td>
- Nickerson, D. W. (2007). Quality is job one: Professional and volunteer voter mobilization calls. American Journal of Political Science, 51(2), 269-282. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/yd6r6a8t>
- Nickerson, D. W., & Rogers, T. (2010). Do you have a voting plan? Implementation intentions, voter turnout, and organic plan making. Psychological Science, 21(2), 194-199. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/k4ww6o9>
- Pew Research Center. (2016, January). 2: Measuring the likelihood to vote. Can likely voter models be improved? (pp. 7-13). Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/ycjctdth>
- Rogers, T., Fox, C. R., & Gerber, A. S. (2012). Rethinking why people vote: Voting as dynamic social expression. Behavioral foundations of policy (pp. 91-107). New York: Russell Sage Foundation. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/kkxcemm>
- Schwartz, R., & Rogers, T. (2010, October 15). 'Low turnout' talk may make it true. PoliticoMagazine. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/mnzzo7f>
- Segelken, H. R. (2014, March 13). Joy of voting early could boost turnout, study shows. Cornell Chronicle. Retrieved from <https://tinyurl.com/k56n7ld>
- Yale University Institution for Social and Policy Studies. (n.d.). Lessons from GOTV experiments. Retrieved from <http://isps.yale.edu/node/16698#.Vs5EAMc4roN>